

FRANCE SEIZES COAL HARBORS; TO WORK MINES

Barges and Boats Being Requisitioned By Authorities

NO CONFISCATIONS German Coal Magnates to Appear Before Court Martial

Essen, Jan. 18.—The French military authorities today seized the harbors of Ruhrort and Duisburg. Barges and boats are being requisitioned along the Rhine to carry coal, coke and supplies.

M. Coste, French director of operations and coal expert of the French ministry of public works, made the definite statement today that the French do not plan the confiscation of German property.

The situation throughout the Ruhr is one of intense anticipation. It was alleged somewhat, however, by M. Coste's statement that there would be no confiscation.

France's change of attitude led to a report that secret negotiations had been opened between the French and Germans.

Paris, Jan. 18.—Twenty-one owners of German coal mines in the Ruhr have been notified to appear before a French court martial to explain why they refused to obey the orders of the Franco-Belgian-Italian industrial commission to deliver coal for shipment to the allies, said a dispatch from Essen today.

To Requisition Coal

The French decided to requisition coal that has already been mined and the work of taking it over for shipment to France and Belgium is under way.

The French claim that 150,000 tons of coal and an equal amount of coke is due daily to the allies.

From Tuesday night until last night the French routed to France freight trains bearing 597 tons of coal and 5,812 tons of Ruhr coke.

French officers declare that the number of troops in the Rhineland and Ruhr is insufficient and that more are necessary to carry out the French program and to avoid trouble. There are about fifty thousand troops on hand now. Officers said that about 25,000 more are necessary.

An officials representative of the German government conferred with the coal section of the inter-ally reparations commission at Essen. The outcome of the conference was not revealed.

An Essen dispatch to the Petit Journal said that German coal and iron magnates were "impatient to be arrested and imprisoned so that they would appear as martyrs in the eyes of the German people."

Despite the change of attitude on the part of Rome, France was understood to be sounding out Italy to ascertain if a regiment of troops would be supplied to take the place of the American army of occupation which is leaving Coblenz.

WOULD INCREASE MUSIC TEACHERS

Columbus, Jan. 18.—That the number of music teachers in county schools, be increased, school orchestras and choral work be organized, that there be a wider county supervision adjusted to the local situation and that the state wide music memory contest be promoted was urged by Mrs. Nell I. Sharpe, state supervisor of music, addressing a meeting here of county school superintendents.

SISTERS SEEK DIVORCE

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Anna Kroeb, a bride of 17, and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kroeb, 22, filed a joint petition for divorce here from their husbands, John and Mathias Kroeb, brothers, residents of Detroit. The sisters were sent to America by their father in 1921 to marry the men, whom they had never seen before.

ANOTHER SCHOOLHOUSE BURNS

Logan, O., Jan. 18.—The Haydenville schoolhouse was completely destroyed by fire of unknown origin. Damage was estimated at $20,000. Four teachers and 125 children attended the Haydenville school. Last Monday night the Pattonville schoolhouse, about a mile and a half west of Logan, suffered a fire, the floor burning out. Last week the schoolhouse at Coalgate was damaged by fire. Authorities are investigating.

ATTACKED KLANSMEN

Daytona, Fla., Jan. 18.—Charles Pent, former policeman, shot through the arm by Chief of Police Joseph Osborne when Pent resisted arrest here after he disrobed two Ku Klux Klansmen on parade, is not seriously hurt, according to physicians. Chief Osborne also suffered slight wounds when he was attacked by a crowd.

IMMIGRANT ONLY 27 INCHES TALL

Washington, Jan. 18.—The United States government will not stand in the way if Kurt Schneider of Germany, who is only 27 inches tall, wants to make his future home in this country.

Schneider, and his two little sisters, Freda and Hilda, were barred by immigration authorities at Ellis island, but the Department of Labor today decided they should be admitted after furnishing satisfactory bond.

DONAHEY IDEAS INTRODUCED IN TWO NEW BILLS

Would Transfer State Auto Licensing Department.

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Substitution of an interlocutory decree for the present absolute decree of divorce in Ohio is provided for in a bill introduced by Rep. Hunt, Lucas County, pending in the House today.

The interlocutory decree would become final at the end of a year provided both parties acted properly. Neither party could remarry before the year had expired.

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Democratic members of the house introduced the first proposals to carry out recommendations made by Governor Donahey in his message to the legislature.

One would transfer the state automobile licensing department from the secretary of state to the state penitentiary under direction of the welfare department, and place the issuance of licenses with county treasurers. The other would put teeth into the blue sky law.

The automobile registration bill, introduced by Representative Kennedy of Brown county, besides transferring automobile registration from the secretary of state to the penitentiary, would change the date of issuing licenses from Jan. 1 to March 1. The county treasurer would issue the licenses and divide the fees between the state and county. He also would handle the transfer of machines from one owner to another, a function now performed by the clerk of courts.

An amendment to the "blue sky" law was offered by Representative Fair of Holmes county. It would give the commissioner of securities power to compel attendance of witnesses and production of books by applicants to sell securities and also require corporations dealing in securities to file sworn annual statements of outstanding stock, inventory and liabilities.

To Transfer Money.

Transfer of money now in the general revenue fund to the state highway fund to make up for the $5,000,000 collected annually heretofore by direct taxes, but which was abolished by the first bill passed by the present assembly, was provided by a bill introduced by Representative Edwards of Cuyahoga county. The bill would make $2,600,000 available from the general revenue fund for the latter part of this year and $5,100,000 annually thereafter.

A similar bill will be introduced soon to take care of the abolished levy for aid to weak school districts. That measure is expected to provide for transfer of approximately $2,000,000 annually from the general revenue fund to the weak school district fund, a sum almost double that derived heretofore from the state tax levy that was abolished by the same bill that abolished the road levy.

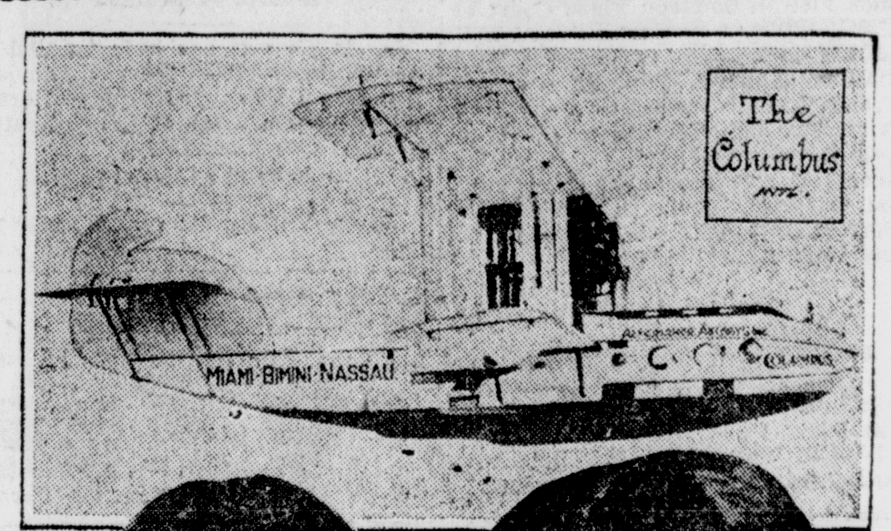

Temporary financial relief for municipalities which find themselves unable to operate without creating a deficit, is provided by a bill introduced in the house by Representative Hunt of Lucas county. It would permit an extra tax levy of not more than two mills by majority vote of the electors to run for not more than four years, to take care of deficits originating prior to Jan. 1, 1924, and also for current operating expenses.

A bill to eliminate party emblems from the Australian ballot in Ohio elections and to adopt the Massachusetts plan was introduced in the senate by Senator Bender of Cuyahoga county.

Senator Kumler, Preble county, introduced another election bill, providing that in primary elections the ballot shall indicate the county in which each candidate resides and, in the case of county commissioners, it shall show the townships. This is aimed to prevent confusion of names where candidates with the same name are running for one office.

Senator Adair, Wayne county, proposed an absent voter law. He would require voters who expect to be absent on election day to go to the presiding judge of the precinct and register his vote three days before election, or, in case of a sick voter, he would have an election officer go to the voter's home.

FOUR PERISH IN FLYING BOAT

When the immense flying boat Columbus was forced down into a high sea 20 miles off Havana, Edwin F. Atkins, New York millionaire, president of the Cuba States Limited Sugar Company; his two sons, Edwin 3rd, aged 5, and David, aged 3 with Miss Grace McDonald their governess, perished. The car float Flagler saved Mrs. Atkins, Otto Abraham, a New York broker; Miss Julia Haverly, W. E. Miller, the pilot, and Harold Thompson, the mechanic.

GERMANY IN FIGHTING MOOD BUT LACKS ARMS

Minister of Interior Declares That Nation Would Go to War With France if She Had Munitions.

Berlin, Jan. 18.—Germany is in a fighting mood and only lack of arms and munitions prevents her from going to war against France to avenge seizure of the Ruhr, Minister of Interior Oeser declared today.

"The German people would spring to arms instantly at the government's call if they could," said Herr Oeser. We want no arms and anyhow the government in control now does not want war, but wants only peace."

Herr Oeser charged that France is not seeking reparations, but is striving to destroy Germany entirely. The German official believes that France will fail. He predicted that France would collapse within five years.

"France is only chasing a will o' the wisp in trying to destroy the German nation," continued Minister Oeser. "It is impossible for less than 40,000,000 French to subjugate 60,000,000 Germans, particularly when the German nation has the greater virility. France cannot last five years at this rate. France does not want reparations. Every act makes this plain. Occupation of the Ruhr is just another step in the French policy of destruction. France could have made an everlasting friend of Germany if she had only made a generous gesture after the war."

"But France refused to make a generous gesture. Now the seeds of hatred that will last for a century are being sown. Even though the Germans can not resist with weapons,

CLEVELAND TO GO AHEAD WITH DEPOT

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—Fortified by a decision of insolvency Judge Adams, sustaining the right to condemn property for depot purposes, the Van Sweringen interests, backers of the depot on the square, were preparing to go ahead today with the construction of Cleveland's new $60,000,000 union station.

It was indicated today that with legal technicalities swept aside work would be actively under way within a few months, and that thousands of men would shortly be engaged excavating for the new structure.

WOMAN KILLS FATHER

Alliance, O., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Mabel Mae Phifer, confessed slayer of her father, Jacob Howell, whom she said she shot and killed because of his abusing and tormenting her and her two children, was held for the grand jury without bail on a charge of first degree murder.

THEATER CATCHES FIRE

Findlay, O., Jan. 18.—Eight hundred persons marched quietly out of the Majestic theater here last night when fire broke out in the operator's booth and for a time threatened destruction of the building. C. Weakley, the operator was burned about the hands and face, and Charles H. Farling who went to his rescue, also suffered slight burns.

HOPE TO COMPLETE STRIKERS ROUNDUP

Harrison, Ark., Jan. 18.—Apparently ignoring the multifarious rumors being circulated, the committee of citizens today expected soon to complete the "round up" of strikers and sympathizers in the arson plot against the Missouri and North Arkansas railroad.

The committee, assisted by deputy sheriffs is working systematically in the collection of its evidence to give the grand jury a few homes of accused strikers have been searched but there has been no violence here.

Other strikers have refrained from threats. Only a few who were not implicated in the plot to destroy the property of the Missouri and North Arkansas railroad have remained in the city.

Citizens here appear satisfied that the plot of the incendiaries has been frustrated and that there will be no further disruptions in train service.

COAL STRIKE IS NOT PROBABLE DURING SPRING

Operators and Miners In Agreement On This Point.

New York, Jan. 18.—Leading coal operators of the country are in conference here today with 100 officials of the United Mine Workers of America.

An agreement which would eliminate the possibility of another general coal strike this spring, is sought.

The union delegates, comprising the general policies committee of the mine workers, are confident of the success of their mission in one vital respect. They and the operators are agreed, they said, that future contracts should protect the union against such simultaneous strikes in hard and soft coal mines as existed for five months last year.

The miners also expressed a conviction that there would be no strike in the bituminous mines this year, although their existing contract, the Cleveland agreement, which ended the strike last August, expires April 1.

Of the anthracite situation they were not so optimistic. But, since the hard coal workers' contract continues until Aug. 15, the danger of a strike in both anthracite and bituminous industries was remote, they said.

John L. Lewis, president of the mine workers' organization, called the conference, which is expected to continue for a week. Virtually every big operator in the four recognized "competitive fields" are represented, as well as a score or more from outlying fields from a dozen states.

Phil A. Penna, secretary of the Indiana coal association, sits as chairman of the joint conference. Besides Mr. Lewis, the miners are represented by Phil Murray of Pittsburgh, vice president of the United Mine Workers of America; William Green of Indianapolis, secretary-treasurer; Ellis Searles of the American Federation of Labor at Washington, and district delegates to the general policies commission.

Notice has been served on the coal miners of Nova Scotia by the international executive board of the United Mine Workers that they can not affiliate with the "red international" labor organizations of Moscow and at the same time remain members of the United Mine Workers.

FEAR LYNCHING AS RESULT OF MURDER

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 18.—Four striking shopmen of the Rock Island railroad, charged with participation in the murder last week of Guy Cornwell, at Trenton, Mo., were rushed here today to prevent lynching. They are in the county jail.

Cornwell, a shop worker, was beaten to death. The four men are Guy Hiles, William Allardice, Charles Peterson and Homer Stamper.

CORK THREATENED WITH ISOLATION

Dublin, Jan. 18.—Two free state soldiers were killed and two others captured in an ambush attack by Irish regulars in county Tipperary today. Three men were wounded in an ambush in county Mayo.

Dublin, Jan. 18.—Republican irregulars today threatened Cork with isolation by land and sea. Railways were torn up and the dock workers are threatening to strike. No boats are entering or leaving the harbor.

AMERICAN WOMEN FIGHT EPIDEMICS

Athens, Greece, Jan. 18.—American women will install, finance and direct the largest medical quarantine station in the world on the island of Marconisi, 30 miles south of Athens, in an effort to cope with the unprecedented epidemic outbreak among near east refugees in Greece.

Dr. Mabel Elliott, director of the American Women's hospitals, arranged with the Greek government to take over the entire island and equip it with facilities for handling 10,000 refugees at one time. The island, 10 miles long and two miles wide, is now uninhabited, but Dr. Elliott plans to set up 2,500 tents and disinfecting plants and soap kitchens.

Because of the pressing emergency, Dr. Elliott has guaranteed to have the station in operation within six days.

YOUNGEST STUDENT WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Robert Driscoll Shea, only 19, the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Shea, of Indianapolis, Indiana, has won the Cecil Rhodes Scholarship from the State of Indiana, the youngest student so honored. Shea at present is in the Harvard Law School, but will leave for Europe to enter Oxford University at the end of the present school term in June.

MAY TAKE STEP AGAINST LARGE ALCOHOL FIRMS

Grand Jury Action Likely Against Large Distributors

Washington, Jan. 18.—Grand jury action may be taken against some of the largest distributors of alcohol in the country, it was said today at Prohibition headquarters.

Acting Prohibition Commissioner Jones charged these distributors with responsibility for a large volume of the bootleg liquor recently turned loose in big cities, among them New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Cleveland, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Buffalo. Millions of gallons of this alcohol are said to have been diverted to illegal channels.

Reports to prohibition headquarters from federal district attorneys in large cities disclosed, it is understood that when government investigators checked back on the bootleg liquor, the trail ultimately led to the dispersers of industrial alcohol, operating under a government license.

Prohibition officials would divulge no details today, other than to say an exhaustive investigation is under way and grand jury action is possible against a number of large distributors. Scores of permits also are being cancelled.

WOMEN APPEAL TO KLAN CHIEF

Bastrop, La., Jan. 18.—Ashes of broken romances are drifting into Morehouse parish today from every section of the country as unhappy women lay bare souls in written appeals to Captain J. K. Skipworth, exalted cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan and storm center in the tempest created by the "hooded mob" murders.

Pathos and bitterness are linked in these appeals. The writers urge the aged klan leader to send his hooded followers far from home on crusades against modern vice.

It was by some odd twist of fate that broken hearted women turned for sympathy and assistance to the greyed and wrinkled "father of the klan" in Morehouse. Many of the appeals carried names and addresses and these were forwarded by the captain to klan headquarters at Atlanta.

WOMAN SLASHED AND ROBBED OF $100

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—A woman was attacked, slashed with a razor and robbed of $100 by a negro maniac shortly before 11 o'clock this morning at the home of Samuel Adams, caretaker of the Matthew Andrews estate in the east end, according to a report to police.

The man is believed to be the same one who for hours yesterday terrorized homes on the east side, robbing a number of women, and shooting but not seriously wounding two.

DRIVEN OUT BY FIRE

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—Fifty persons were driven to the street in night clothes early today when fire swept through two apartment buildings. One policeman was badly cut by flying glass when he forced his way into a building in Kinsman road, to rescue persons caught by the flames.

CHURCH LEADER IDENTIFIED AS MEMBER OF MOB

Sensation is Sprung at Open Hearing In Louisiana

NAMED BY FARMER

Wealthy Resident Alleged to Have Taken Part in Kidnaping.

Courthouse, Bastrop, La., Jan. 18.—A sensation was sprung at the open hearing today when F. N. Grey, church leader and wealthy farmer, was identified as a member of the "hooded mob" which kidnapped five former Mer Rouge citizens last August. The identification was made from the witness stand, by Fred Eubanks, a Collinston farmer.

SHOOTING CASE IS OPENED THURSDAY IN COMMON PLEAS

The trial of Elvia Sullinger, 27, colored, indicted by the Grand Jury last fall began in Common Pleas Court Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

Sullinger is alleged to have shot Choice Kennedy, colored, Mrs. Choice Kennedy and the latter's mother, Mrs. Grace Roberts, at their home the latter part of last August. Sullinger had been renting a house belonging to Mrs. Roberts and the shooting is said to have followed an argument over payments of the rent. Sullinger himself was shot by Kennedy who obtained a shot-gun and fired at Sullinger after the latter had emptied a revolver.

Prosecuting Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson, who is prosecuting Sullinger, called a number of witnesses Thursday morning, Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Roberts and a number of witnesses to the shooting giving their testimony on the stand. The state rested at 11:30 o'clock and the defense, represented by Attorney F. L. Johnson, will call a number of witnesses during the afternoon.

The jury hearing the case is composed of J. M. Carper, Heber Douthett, F. W. Simson, Marjorie Moyer, Fred McClain, A. L. Bigler, Charles Searns, J. A. Piper, James Patterson, Brant U. Bell, Elbert L. Dabb and Fred Woolary.

URGE REDUCING ALL ROAD ASSESSMENTS

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Recommendation that the state legislature reduce road assessments on the state highways to a minimum of 15 per cent of the cost of construction was registered at a meeting of the legislative committee of the Ohio Good Roads Federation.

The committee, including T. R. Dahl, Cleveland, G. A. Waddell, Akron asserted that the future of the Buckeye State as a progressive road building state depends upon relieving the farmers burden of excessive assessments.

WOMAN IS STABBED BY ANGRY WIFE

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Rebecca Barnett, 39 years old, was stabbed to death in a south side flat today. The police arrested Mrs. Hazel Cox, 28.

"That Barnett woman has been playing around with my husband," Mrs. Cox said, according to the police. The victim was stabbed three times in the body. The stabbing came in the midst of a "party."

MADMAN INVADERS DWELLINGS

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—A man believed to be insane invaded five homes here, shot and wounded Isaac Shindler, 42, attacked six women and robbed two persons. He concluded his reign of terror by taking flight in Kingsbury run, with police and detectives on his trail.

OUTOS DESTROYED

East Liverpool, O., Jan. 18.—Fire swept part of the Little Motor Sales company garage, destroying 28 automobiles and causing damages estimated at $60,000. Most of the automobiles were owned privately and stored in the garage. Cause of the fire is undetermined.

OIL PRICE ADVANCES

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 18.—The Joseph Seep Purchasing Agency here buyers for Standard Oil, announced effective at 10 o'clock today an advance of 10 cents a barrel for crude oil, at the wells for eastern grades except Ragland and Corning which are unchanged.

BROADSTONE BILLS KILLED IN HOUSE COMMITTEE SESSION

Two bills introduced by Representative M. A. Broadstone of this city, aimed at attacks made by masked persons, but ostensibly aimed at the Ku Klux Klan, received rough treatment from the House Judiciary Committee Wednesday.

The bill introduced by Representative Broadstone making an assault or threat by a masked person a felony punishable by a term of from one to 15 years in the state penitentiary, was the first bill killed in this session of the state legislature by a legislative committee. The House Judiciary Committee killed this proposed measure by a vote of 11 to 2.

The same committee also amended the second bill introduced by Mr. Broadstone, so that this measure now provides that any masked person who slays another while attempting to commit a felony is guilty of murder in the first degree. The bill, as originally drafted provided that any masked person attempting to commit a misdemeanor or felony should be guilty of first degree murder if a death follow.

The amendment decided upon by the committee does not materially change the effects of the second bill. In an interview given out in Columbus several days ago, Representative Broadstone said his bills were not aimed at the Ku Klux Klan, although he was not a member of that organization, but were made general so as to affect any person or organization committing an attack while disguised or masked, whether that disguise be of the Klan or any organization.

DEBT COMMISSION SAILS SATURDAY

Washington, Jan. 18.—Negotiations between the American and British debt commissions concerning the refunding of Great Britain's war debt to the United States have reached a stage regarded as making desirable a personal report by the British to the cabinet at home before the continuation of efforts to reach even a tentative agreement on terms.

The conversation which has been going on here for 10 days will be suspended after today's joint session and the British will sail from New York on Saturday. The time and manner of the resumption of the negotiations then will rest with the London government.

In both British and American circles it was emphasized that there would be only a suspension of the negotiations; that a settlement of the debt, the greatest single international financial transaction in the history of the world, must and would be reached.

ALLEGED ROBBER WILL KNOW FATE

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—"Big Jim" Morton, said by the state to be the "most dangerous criminal in Ohio," may know his fate by nightfall. He has been on trial all week charged with the robbery of the west Cleveland Bank in June, 1919, when $65,000 was secured by armed bandits. Morton, who was heretofore convicted and granted a new trial, depends upon an alibi to secure his freedom.

MISSING MINISTER FINALLY LOCATED

Marysville, O., Jan. 18.—Rev. H. C. Tervehn, Lutheran minister, who mysteriously disappeared Dec. 27 from his home here, has been a patient at the Allegheny general hospital, Pittsburgh, since last Sunday. The minister, a victim, according to hospital officials, of "hysterical amnesia," has steadfastly refused to give any information concerning himself. He entered the hospital as an "unknown." His condition is not regarded as serious.

HAVE TO GET UP NIGHTS FOR BLADDER RELIEF?

Try Simple Method This Dayton Man Reports Relieved Him Quickly
Mr. Wm. D. Ostermeyer, 326 East Second St., says in his own home paper the Dayton Daily News: "My bladder caused me to get up many times at night and also inconvenienced me as often as every 30 minutes in the day. After taking a few Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) tablets my bladder is perfectly normal. They also relieved a very lame back for me. It gives me much pleasure to tell my friends about these little tablets."

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom Salts do on the bowels. It cleans them out. It is not a patent medicine, as the formula is on the package. The tablets cost 2c each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several high-priced drugs, which are useful for relief, very likely you have never taken anything like this remedy. Try a few doses for backache, scalding, scanty or high colored urine, and frequent desire at night.

You can get Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) Sayre and Hemphill drug stores everywhere or write The Keller

HONEYMOON STATE OF MIND SAYS POLA NEGRI WHOSE ENGAGEMENT TO CHAPLIN IS ANNOUNCED

Monterey, Cal., Jan. 18.—Pola Negri says that a honeymoon is a state of mind.

If that is so she may be enjoying a "mental honeymoon" here at Pebble Beach lodge on the shores of Monterey Bay.

Charlie Chaplin is not here in person on this "honeymoon trip," but his spirit is expressed in the flowers that fill the rooms, in the constant long distance telephone messages that come from him from Los Angeles and telegrams that further punctuate the day.

Charlie Chaplin left Santa Barbara for Hollywood on Sunday. Pola Negri and her personal retinue motored up here to the lodge at Pebble Beach, which is practically deserted at this time of year. She is registered as Countess Dombolski, the name she acquired by virtue of her marriage to the Polish count from whom she is divorced.

CROSS BRANDED ON ARM OF YOUNG GIRL

LaPorte, Ind., Jan. 18.—A cross was branded on the arm of Luzella Garrison, pretty 16 year old girl, by a man who invaded her home here last night and attacked her with a red hot iron, her father, Bert Garrison, reported to the police today.

He found the girl in a faint on the floor. The man, small and neatly dressed, was unknown to her, Luzella said.

The outstanding high lights that illuminate the heart affairs of these two cinema celebrities all point to the altar as the objective. Their best friends believe that marriage was the purpose of the trip from Hollywood to Santa Barbara last Friday, when Chaplin himself drove Pola in his car, and her secretary, maid and chauffeur followed in another motor.

Neither of them would admit to press representatives in Santa Barbara that they had married—nor did they deny it. The party spent Saturday night at Samarkand.

RAILROAD COMPANY IGNORES ORDER TO RESUME OLD SERVICE

In spite of an order issued in Common Pleas Court at Cincinnati by Judge Stanley Roettinger requiring the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to resume passenger train service on the schedule in effect before the change was made last Sunday, no change has yet been made on service in this city, officials say.

The order of Judge Roettinger required that the company resume the old schedule until the hearing on the proposed change before the public utilities commission next Tuesday, January 23, which date the commission had originally set for a hearing of the case.

The Company put into effect a new schedule of curtailed passenger service Sunday, after the utilities commission had ordered that the road withhold the schedule until the proposed changes could be heard by the commission. The Company ignored the order in changing its schedule. The new schedule has cut off several passenger trains and changed stopping schedules of a number of through trains.

Officials here said Thursday that although rumors had been received here that the Company was to go on the old schedule, that no official orders to that effect had been received here, and that now the trains are operating on the new schedule.

BEWARE OF DRUGS

Medicinal Authorities Advise Caution in the Use of Preparations Liable to Contain Powerful Drugs.

Never drug your system to relieve or prevent colds, grippe or "flu." Drugs are liable to affect the nervous system or weaken the heart.

Hot medicinal tea is now recommended by many physicians, because it is best for the human system, acts quickly on the bowels and intestines by eliminating the excess poisonous wastes that usually tend to lower your physical resistance. Just pure, refreshing, healthful herbs from nature; that is why millions are now using Hungarian Herb Tea to relieve and break up bad colds, and oals keep the poisons flushed from the system. Many physicians now prescribe Bulgarian Herb Tea, and your druggist can honestly recommend it.

RUB RHEUMATIC, ACHING JOINTS AND STOP PAIN

St. Jacobs Oil stops any pain, and rheumatism is pain only.

Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging! Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil right into your sore, stiff, aching joints, and relief comes instantly. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism liniment, which never disappoints, and cannot burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacobs Oil at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness and stiffness. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. St. Jacobs Oil is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.

Mother-To-Be, Read This—

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse. We had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Note: Write for valuable, free illustrated book, "Motherhood and the Baby," containing important authoritative information which every expectant mother should have, and all about "Mother's Friend," by Dr. Bradley Regulator Company, 14-21, Atlanta, Ga. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists everywhere.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

WHEN "DUTY" CALLS WE NEVER SHIRK.

Four millions of armed men and thirty billions of dollars, thrown into the scales of a struggle between the two greatest aggregations of political and military force ever known in history, would have bought any kind of world order and harmony that the most idealistic could have desired. But this presupposes wisdom and foresight enough in the seats of the mighty to have made the definite bargain before the price was paid. The better acquainted with the innermost facts the thoughtful student of politics and history becomes, the more obvious will be the truth of these remarks. It does not follow, however, that because we went to war with no agreements whatever for achieving anything beyond a military victory, we are absolved from further responsibility. We would discredit every sacrifice that we had made, and we would cast doubt upon our high motives and good intentions, if we attempted to resume precisely that pose of isolation to which we were accustomed in pre-war times. While we will not permit particular European prime ministers, or cabinets, or foreign newspaper writers, or visiting lecturers to instruct us in our duties and obligations, we will see realities from our own standpoint.

Whenever there is anything going on "over there" in which we feel that we have an interest, say in the adjustment of affairs in which we had taken part, we have deemed it proper to have on hand an "observer" who makes it his business to keep our administration posted. This is quite a different thing from an "entangling alliance" such as the League of Nations provided for and which we refused to take part in.

We have not forgotten the noble words of the immortal Washington in his Farewell Address: "Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence I conjure you to believe me, fellow citizens, the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake."

In all time there never before was such a mixup of "entangling" affairs in the old world as at present, and it behooves us to keep out of it as much as possible. The more the better.

THE GENERAL OUTLOOK IS PRETTY DARK.

As we enter upon a New Year and try to compare conditions with those that prevailed at the opening of 1922, there are no bold contrasts that can be set forth in a few sentences. If one were alluding to world conditions in terms of weather, the skies were generally overcast a year ago, with mist and fog prevailing in some regions and storms more or less violent reported from one place and another. The fateful Year 1923 arrives with not less dubious weather, and finds dark clouds hovering over extensive portions of what was once known as the civilized world. The optimists can at least encourage one another by saying that—since bright skies will surely make their appearance some time—we must be exactly one year nearer a normal, prosperous, and happy world than we were a year ago.

If, indeed, a new era in the story of human welfare were solely dependent upon the world's political and diplomatic leadership, the pessimists might well claim that the arguments were nearly all on their side. The European countries that took the principal parts on both sides in the Great War have not been led thus far by their Prime Ministers and their rulers into pleasant paths of mutual helpfulness. They have not stood firmly by the agreements they made in the settlements that were signed, sealed, and delivered in the summer of 1919 at Versailles. Nor have they been able to modify those agreements in any satisfactory way.

SCHOOLING BY FAMILIES.

In June a father, mother and their three children will be graduated from the University of Oklahoma. This probably constitutes a record for family unity in education.

It is a pleasure to think about that family advancing together. A nation in which social and educational systems make such a thing practical is not approaching decadence. It is a reason for optimism of the most untroubled variety.

There is a growing tendency for people of adult years to realize that educational opportunities do not close with the early twenties, and to avail themselves of the opportunities for growth and higher culture which are open on every hand.

Where this fashion is followed there will be no old parents sitting by the fireside in later years, grieving because the children have outgrown them; there will be no children grieving over parents who have not kept pace with them and the world, or secretly ashamed of parental ignorance. It is a pity that even where parents cannot literally go to school and college with their children they do not more commonly take definite measures for keeping with them as nearly as they can.

ALL KINDS CLIMATE.

The other day it was 30 degrees below zero in Montana and at the same hour, 74 degrees above in Florida. Here is a difference of 104 degrees Fahrenheit. Can any other country in the world show the same range of temperature?

One of the resources of the United States is this wide variation in climate. At almost any season of the year a citizen with leisure and money to travel can find almost any climate he wants. And in most places a citizen can accomplish the same purpose without traveling, if he has a little patience. If he stays right where he is, the kind of climate he prefers will come to him at some time in the year.

This almost infinite climatic variety is in itself one of the most powerful factors in our national prosperity, as well as a source of pleasure and health. It promotes travel which is profitable; but that is only a small part of it. Climatic variation results in enormous variety of agricultural and manufactured products, stimulating industry and trade. It is one of the chief reasons why the United States is a world in itself, almost economically independent.

There are 2374 newspapers published daily in the United States.

Taunton, Mass., is the greatest tack-making city in the world.

United States produces more than 20 per cent of the world's supply of gold.

Idaho and Wyoming are the greatest centers for range sheep in the country.

New York produces more than one-twelfth of the manufactures of the United States.

BEING JUST AS EXASPERATING AS POSSIBLE

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

The big coal dock which has just been completed west of the Pan Handle depot is an object of a good deal of pride to the carpenters and mechanics who constructed it. It is 590 feet in length, and its height at its highest place, is 25 feet and six inches. There are 39 trestles of yellow pine beneath the structure.

Mr. M. F. Barrows, the insurance agent is making preparations for an extended trip to old Mexico. He will leave within a few days and will be absent for a couple of months on business.

Governor Nash yesterday sent to the sheriff of Greene County a letter which is in effect a proclamation to the citizens of Xenia to stop stealing coal from the cars of the Pennsylvania company. He threatens to use the power of the state to protect the property of the corporation if necessary.

The sensational dispatches sent out from Xenia as to coal rioting in the Pan Handle yards and an army of men with Winchester seeking coal has caused this city to gain considerable notoriety in fact a bad reputation, many persons thinking that the city is in a state of anarchy, owing to the false reports.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia). 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

A MISUNDERSTOOD TYPE.

No girl wants to be thought mannish—no normal girl, that is, but certain so-called mannish traits are becoming to many types and should be more common than they are.

The habit of straight thinking, which men are pleased to think is an attribute of their sex, is a habit that most women should cultivate. A woman is supposed to think vaguely, her mind is said to go round in a circle—and too often it's true. The habit of looking at a subject squarely, without taking in too many unrelated circumstances, is supposed to be "masculine"—and I notice that old-fashioned women haven't it, and that up to date ones have.

But we don't want to get into a deep discussion. Certain qualities of straight forward honesty, loyalty, and above all others, leniency in judging others are supposed to be mannish, but every woman should cultivate them.

There's one type of girl, however, who is always called "mannish" and who isn't really, who represents this term intensely. I know one of her sort. Barbara M. Barbara's men friends call her a good sport and a good pal, and don't flirt with her nor hold her hand under such sentimental influences as the moon, because they know her "masculine" sense of humor will make her laugh at them. They call her "masculine" because she's efficient in her work, because she sharpens a pencil correctly—though what that has to do with it, is beyond me! Because she throws a ball well, throwing from the shoulder, not the elbow, because she walks with an easy swing, swims well and can repair her own motor when something goes wrong.

So feminine Barbara is misunderstood on account of certain intelligent characteristics. Sometimes I believe all men think of us as Dickens or Thackeray painted women.

Longing—There is no reason why a girl of 16 should reduce the size of the bust as a few more years of growth will bring the whole figure into proper proportions. With a height of five feet three and weight 145 pounds you are 25 pounds overweight, so the best thing for you to do is to try to reduce all over by eating less starchy food.

Edith—Your hair is getting thin because of a sluggish scalp. Massage the scalp with olive oil the night before the regular shampoo and never use any caustic soap when washing the hair. The old fashioned castile soap makes the best shampoo for hair that is brittle and dry as yours. Massage the scalp every night to improve the circulation.

SOLD PENS TO DEAD MEN

Indianapolis, Jan. 18.—Selling fountain pens to dead men brought Robert C. Melrose of Wabash a sentence of one year in the penitentiary. Melrose admitted to Judge Anderson that he looked up death notices in newspapers and then mailed a 25-cent fountain pen to each of the various deceased, with a c. o. d. charge of $3. Almost invariably, he said, the bereaved families accepted and paid for the pen.

Sayre & Hemphill

HYMN OF HATE.

In my youth I used to hate with the fervor of a lion; for revenge I'd grimly wait on the luckless hated one; any man who wrought me harm I declared a false alarm and I'd rather lose an arm than forget the ill he'd done. Now I bend beneath the weight of some ninety-seven years; all such bitter words as hate rudely jar upon my ears; age has many penalties, falling hair and aching knees, but the truth an old man sees, it is written down in tears. If a voter does me wrong I forget it in a day; though the memory be strong, I must shoo the thing away; for I'd rather think of pies, or of something else I prize, than to sit and hate the guys who have robbed me of my hay. When my soul is full of peace life's the thing of my desire; I can sit with aunt and niece, happy as a house afire; all the world seems good and fair, harmony is in the air, there's no baseness anywhere, and I gayly whang my lyre. But if hatred's in my heart, balmy peace must pull its freight, for these two must dwell apart, precious peace and horrid hate; and my life, so bright before, suddenly becomes a bore; nothing pleases any more till my evil thoughts abate. Anything opposed to peace is a thing we should avoid; when we've that our troubles cease it's a blessing unalloyed; peace, which soothes our little lives, goes away when hate arrives; peace is dead if hate survives; therefore hate should be destroyed.

Today's Talk

AS THE STARS PARADE There is something deeply pregnant about the night—its silence, its mystery, its human appeal, its beauty, its invitation to restfulness and meditation.

Whitman beautifully pictures its contrasted feeling when he speaks of it as "the huge and thoughtful night."

I remember that, as a boy, I loved to walk out into the night after supper and encircle the small town in which I lived. In the summertime to hear the strange, light noises of resting night foul or of the never sleeping crickets, or to stand on the little bridge near the mill dam to hear the soft songs of the creek; and in the wintertime to breathe the crisp air and to hear the crackle of the frost in the snow, as the lights from the huddled houses bespoke warmth and family cheer.

It was at such times that I dreamed of some day becoming a great orator and thrilling huge crowds, or of returning to the home town to the tune of martial music, as their chosen governor or senator—or president! But now I go out into the night to drink in its beauty and poetry and to meditate upon the richness of life, of the goodness of the Creator, and to rest these body cells of mine that have done their toil during the day.

I no longer desire to be the things that I dreamed of as a boy.

I am quite content with the evolution of time and circumstances—glad of life and a chance to humbly serve.

But I would recommend the night as a great educational force and factor. The nights of each season have their own particular appeal in no matter what corner of the globe.

Tonight, let us go out together into the darkness for silent communion under the numberless eyes of the heavens, and let us be grateful for the day, and go to our places of rest with smoothed out minds and cleansed hearts.

And let us love "the huge and thoughtful night."

SPREADING OVER
GREENE COUNTY

Although the weather, Thursday, brought thoughts of spring, Xenians, who went without their mufflers, and flannel-on-the-chest, were running grave risks of meeting the grip, influenza, and pneumonia, which has rapidly spread over the vicinity recently.

According to local physicians, what is really best for overcoming the present large amount of sickness, is a long spell of severe cold dry weather which will prevent germs from spreading, and endangering lives.

"While the situation in Xenia may be termed an epidemic, and has been quite perplexing, I think the situation is entirely in hand now, and is not cause for worry," said one Xenia doctor Thursday. Xenia has fared better during the siege of grip, "flu" and pneumonia, than other cities of the state, Dayton, Cincinnati, Columbus and Portsmouth being reported to be in the throws of a serious epidemic.

Xenia physicians average having from 10 to 15 cases of grip and light forms of "flu" and are confident that the situation is no worse and possibly abating. Sudden changes in the temperature, of which Thursday was an example, is said by doctors to be dangerous, causing lack of perspiration from the disease. Plenty of fresh air, each hour of the day, particularly ventilation of the bedrooms each night, with exercise, proper food, and warm clothing are essential in combating the disease, say nurses and doctors.

WILL FURNISH FIRST GAME THURSDAY NIGHT

The Famous Juniors and the L. E. John Emeralds, municipal league contenders, will furnish the preliminary to the game between the Famous Autos and the New York Defenders at the Rink Thursday night.

The preliminary between these two clubs will start at 7:15 o'clock, while the scheduled classic between the crack Famous Autos combination and the New York aggregation is expected to get under way at 8:15 o'clock. Sammy Fleet, well-known official, considered one of the fastest referees in this section, will officiate at the game.

BRAND NEW CAUSES FOR DIVORCE ALLEGED BY WIFE
IN PETITION FILED AGAINST HUSBAND IN COUNTY

Laziness, failure to raise potatoes, uncleanness, and failure to change underwear, at least at the Saturday night intervals prescribed by the customs of society are some brand-new and unused causes for divorce, being given their initial airing in Greene County Courts.

STATE JUBILANT
IN HERRIN CASE

Marion, Ill., Jan. 18.—The case of the five union miners charged with murder in the Herrin mine riots of June 21 and 22, was given to the jury shortly before noon today.

The state was jubilant over instructions given the panel by Judge De Witt T. Hartwell. He said:

"It is not against the law to mine coal without being a member of the United Mine Workers of America. If assaulted or killed for no other reason it cannot be justified because they were not members of the organization."

The defense, on the contrary, was pleased with that part of his instructions concerning one defendant, Otis Clark. The bench said that, if the jurors were convinced Clark publicly announced his intention of withdrawing from the mob and did so after becoming acquainted with its purpose his previous acts were not sufficient to prove him guilty.

The bench considered more than 200 instructions.

charges in her petition for divorce, custody, alimony and injunction, and Edward F. Brown, Beaver Creek Township farmer living on the Shakerstown pike is named as offender, who has laid himself open to these charges by, "not going to work until nine o'clock in the morning and wearing the same pair of overalls now, that he donned fresh and clean early last fall."

Instead of following the auto-suggestion methods of Emile Coue, Brown has, "day by day," to quote from the petition filed Wednesday with Clerk of Courts Harvey Elam, been getting worse and worse. And this too, after twenty years of married bliss, trials, tribulations, joy and sorrow. The Browns were married March 27, 1903 and beside one grown child, have three minor children, Lawrence, aged 17, Merle, aged six, and Joseph, aged 4. Although her husband has a 75 acre farm, he did not raise a "single potato" last year, forcing the plaintiff to buy all they used, the petition charges.

But Brown had an excuse, the petition declares. For in answer to her protestations, he told her he was born on the thirteenth day of the month, and by reason of that peculiar fact, did not have to work, could treat her as he pleased and dared her to appeal to the courts.

The farm is worth $7,000, the plaintiff says, and she enumerates the livestock which she declares, she tended. She has kept the family through the sale of milk, but this means of livelihood, she says, is now threatened by an inspector who says the building where the cows are kept will have to be changed, before more milk can be sold. She wants divorce alimony, custody of the children, and an order restraining the defendant from interfering with her children.

EXPENSES INCURRED IN FEEDING SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE SHOWN

Striking an average of the expenditure being met by the various Parent-Teacher Associations of the Xenia City Schools, in feeding milk and wafers to the undernourished children of the schools for the past several months, the expense account of the McKinley Parent-Teacher Association has been reported.

According to figures compiled by officers of the association, $217.32 has been spent since the presentation of "The Microbe of Love" by the Federated Circles, several weeks ago, in order to give the daily luncheons to the pupils of the McKinley School.

Of this amount $144 was received from the proceeds of the show, $10 being received through donations. It cost the Association $153.58 for milk and wafers since January 15, the weekly cost being $18.64 an average of $3.52 being received each week from the pupils of the school. The balance remaining in the McKinley Association treasury at the present time totals $62.74.

Members of the Association are urging the support of school patrons and the public, at the supper to be given February 1, at six o'clock. Fifty cents will be charged for each plate, the parents and patrons to donate food for the supper. Each donor is asked to call the chairman of the committee in charge of the supper, Mrs. E. H. Hunt.

EAST END NEWS

The Festival of Music given at Zion Baptist Church Sunday afternoon by Messrs. Homer Smith, Charles Smith and Coaltion H. Becker, of Wilberforce, was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Homer Smith possesses an unusual tenor voice with which he pleased his audience in each selection. Mr. Charles Smith, violinist was at his best. He possesses the quality of an artist. Mr. Coaltion H. Becker, pianist rendered the most difficult classics with dexterity.

MAKES THE DEAF HEAR

Remarkable Invention Enables the Deaf to Hear All Sounds Clearly.

Every one who is troubled with deafness in any form will be interested in the announcement of the Dictograph Products Corporation, Suite 1322, No. 229 West 42nd Street, New York, that they have at last perfected a device which will enable every one whose auditory nerve is not entirely destroyed to hear as perfectly as one whose hearing is normal. To test it thoroughly they sent it to a number of people who had been deaf for years and they report most gratifying results. Many state that they hear the slightest sound with perfect ease and that their natural hearing has been greatly improved.

The manufacturers are so proud of their achievement and so confident that every deaf person will be amazed and delighted with it, that they offer to send it to any one by prepaid parcel post on ten days' free trial. They do not ship C. O. D., nor do they require any deposit, but send it entirely at their own risk and expense, allowing the user ten full days to try it and decide whether they want to keep it or not. As there is no obligation whatever, every one who is troubled with deafness in any form should take advantage of this liberal free trial offer. Just send them your name and address for descriptive literature and free trial request blank—Adv.

Mother Asks Governor for Trial of Ward.

Mrs. Mary O. Peters

Mrs. Mary O. Peters, mother of Clarence Peters, former United States sailor, who was shot to death in West Chester County, New York, by Walter S. Ward, son of a multi-millionaire New York banker, has appealed to Governor A. E. Smith, in Albany, to force a trial of Ward. Ward surrendered to the police of White Plains and declared he killed Peters in a pistol duel that followed a blackmailing plot. The indictment against him was dismissed when the State refused to bring him to trial, admitting in sufficient evidence to convict.

OLD EGYPTIAN MUMMY TO BE X-RAYED IF STILL IN TOMB SOON TO BE OPENED

London, January 17.—Pharaoh Tut-Ankh-Amen, the mightiest man in the world 3000 years ago, is to be X-rayed if his mummy still lies in the mystery chamber of his recently discovered tomb, which Lord Carnarvon will open when he returns to Egypt some time this month.

When the archaeologists force open the alabaster coffin and take off the thin covering of beaten gold from the body they will carry the shrouded form into the sunlight and photograph it from every angle, and for the first time in history a movie will be taken of that weird sight, the unwrapping of a mummy.

This film will show the mummy as it was deposited in a tomb, and will follow the long and difficult process from the unwrapping of the mummy cloth until the body of the king meets the light of day for the first time for thirty centuries.

"I am making no risks," said Lord Carnarvon, who has returned to London after his historic find.

"I do not know what we shall find in that third chamber, but as there is every indication that the mummy is still there I am taking every scientific precaution, so that no important fact may be lost to the world.

"It is necessary that X-ray photographs should be taken, because the radiographs of a royal mummy which has not been disturbed by tomb robbers will throw in portion light on the ancient ritual of embalming.

"If the mummy proves to be untouched it will enable archaeologists to learn for the first time how a royal mummy was wrapped for burial.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaints, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

ANTIOCH COLLEGE CO-EDS MUST NOT SMOKE IS RULING

Lady Nicotine, was formally banned from Antioch College, at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon, at which the constitution of the women's conference was amended to include an anti-smoking edict.

Whether they are at college, or engaged in industrial work outside under the co-operative plan, in operation at Antioch, the fair students will be forced to give up the weed.

"We are not in favor of regulating the private habits of the students, but I am glad that this restriction has been made, for it affects the standing of the student body as a whole," was the statement of Dean Philip C. Nash, of the College, Wednesday.

The conference that passed the anti-smoking edict, includes in its membership all women students of the school, numbering about 80. It has no final disciplinary jurisdiction, but can recommend action to the faculty.

Dean Nash declared that he had found no specific cases of smoking among women brought to his attention, but it was probable that smoking was done, as would probably be the case among any group of girls of that size.

The Antioch girls stay at a dormitory while at the college and at the Antioch clubhouse when in Dayton, on co-operative industrial work, and are under supervision at both places, according to Dean Nash.

OLD RIVALS TO MEET CENTRAL HIGH SATURDAY

Old-time and respected rivals will meet Central High on the basketball court, Saturday night when McClain High of Greenfield will play here.

In all of the football meetings between these two schools, McClain High has been forced to take the short end of the score, and each succeeding season the Greenfield tilters strive to even the losses sustained on the gridiron.

Last year, in the game played at Greenfield, the McClain team avenged a defeat sustained in football, last fall the Greenfield football team again lost putting Xenia out in front in the athletic argument between the two schools. Whether Xenia will sustain the prestige of that gridiron victory or be forced back on even terms with McClain, will be the question solved at the Rink-Saturday night.

Styles BY LENORE

An interesting cloth frock with which to meet the first needs of spring is illustrated in the dark blue model sketched. The bodice is individual, with its long graceful "V" line, and the embroidered motif, done in red and dull gold, with the same idea carried into the girdle.

And if you like a lot of red about you, you will retain the original design, as sketched, with its inner foundation of red crepe de chine showing at every step through the divided skirt. However, perhaps French blue, or beige, might be considered more discreet. Or the colored foundation may be omitted altogether, and the skirt closed.

SUFFERED MANY YEARS WITH FEMALE TROUBLE PE-RU-NA LIKE A GIFT FROM HEAVEN

Mrs. Katie Scheffel,
R. F. D. No. 5, Lowell, Ohio

"I have been suffering for years with female trouble. Was operated on five years ago. It relieved me some but I did not regain my strength. Two years later was taken sick and bedfast several months. I treated a long while without much relief. I was discouraged, my mind affected, so nervous I could neither eat or sleep and unable to do anything.

We tried several doctors but one after another gave up my case as hopeless. Finally a good friend advised me to try Pe-ru-na. I did. It relieved me almost immediately. Your medical department said I was suffering from chronic catarrh of the system. I began taking your medicine in March, 1914, and continued until August. I took ten bottles of Pe-ru-na and three bottles of Man-a-lin and felt like a new person. Your medicine seemed like a gift from Heaven. It was like coming from darkness into light.

We have used your medicine since for coughs, colds and grip with good results. We will always keep it on hand. I weigh twenty-five pounds more than I ever did, eat and sleep well and can do a good day's work. Everybody says I look fine. Even the doctors are surprised. I cannot thank you enough and will always recommend Pe-ru-na to sufferers from catarrh."

MRS. KATIE SCHEFFEL,
R. F. D. No. 5, Lowell, O.

Mrs. Scheffel is only one of many thousand women in the world, who owe their present health to Pe-ru-na. The record of this medicine is a proud one as Pe-ru-na has held the confidence of both sexes for fifty years or more.

If your trouble is due to a catarrhal inflammation in any organ or part of the body, do like Mrs. Scheffel. Try Pe-ru-na. Insist upon having the original and reliable remedy for catarrhal conditions. You won't be sorry.

MUST ALTER SYSTEM TO COMBAT DISEASE DECLARES PHYSICIAN

Dr. R. H. Grube, of this city, is author of an article entitled "The Contagium Vivum," which was published in the January issue of the Ohio State Medical Journal.

The article was read before the Section of Hygiene and Sanitary Science of the Ohio State Medical Association during the seventy-sixth annual meeting at Cincinnati last May and deals with contagious disease and epidemics.

Dr. Grube expresses the opinion that germ diseases are not likely to disappear from the world unless the present laws and customs for combating the contagious disease, which are inefficient, antiquated and unnecessarily burdensome, are revised to conform to truer ideas as to the biology of the causative factors of epidemics.

His article deals exhaustively with different phases of contagious disease and epidemics and under the sub-head, "spreading contagion," says in part: "I come now to the mouth to mouth theory, with its variations which I think are amply sufficient to account for the spread of most contagious diseases. When we consider that the mouth is an ideal incubator for microbes, in that it has a proper and constant temperature, moisture and nutriment, we can see how these germs might lodge in the mouth and multiply there and be transmitted to others, although the person himself might be immune to infection by the disease in question. Transmission by direct contact as in kissing, the sequent use of drinking or eating utensils, or objects like pencils so common among school children, and the drops, not droplets, transferred at short range during coughing or sneezing, or the more recent theory of hand to mouth infection, which seems to be rapidly gaining credence among clinicians are sufficient to account for the spread of the infections which are considered."

"The last mentioned method needs a little more elaboration. Almost involuntarily most persons cover the mouth and nose with hand while coughing or sneezing, especially when in the presence of others. Now the hand, especially the palmar surface, has an active though insensible perspiration. This prevents the quick drying of the drops of saliva and mucus and a part of these drops and their contained microbes is transferred to the next object grasped. This may be another hand, a door knob or a hand rail and the next similarly moist palm will pick it up and transfer it to another mouth."

Dr. Grube is Greene County Health Commissioner and formerly health commissioner for the city of Xenia.

made a similar plea in his address at the meeting.

Efforts are being made on the part of Xenia Council to build up the lodge here, in line with similar efforts of other lodges. A class initiation will be held soon in Springfield, at which time the new members obtained here will be taken into the organization.

COX FIRES OPENING GUN IN 1924 DRIVE IN LANCASTER TALK

Makes Strong Bid For Leadership of His Party

Lancaster, O., Jan. 17.—Former Governor James M. Cox, speaking at the annual Jackson day dinner of Fairfield county Democrats here last night, reaffirmed his belief that the United States should enter the league of nations.

"We must enter into some international agreement, or remain in isolation," Mr. Cox said. "There is no middle ground. Since those who suggested other plans have abandoned them, common sense opens the only avenue of service—service not only for Europe, but ourselves as well."

The speaker's pronouncement came after a denunciation of the present administration's course both in foreign and domestic affairs, summed up in his statement that "the present public indictment is that general incompetence is enthroned at Washington."

Mr. Cox said: "If any Democrat believes that the verdict was registered against the league in 1920, and that it was regarded as conclusive, what about the tariff? We have been defeated in the past on that issue, but did we give up the fight? On the contrary, we continued to affirm it, while the Republicans stood for a protective tariff. Are we to accept the present tariff monstrosity as the expressed preference of the people, or will we renew the fight in 1924?"

Direct responsibility for the unsettled conditions in the near east was placed at the door of the United States department of state by Mr. Cox. Judge Florence E. Allen of the state supreme court made a short address in which she said the great political parties ought to make the nonpartisanship of judges a plank in each of their platforms.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES HAVE TO GO

Clogged up Kidney Deposits are Dissolved and the Toxins (Poisons) Completely Driven Out. Druggists Told to Guarantee It in Every Instance.

"Your very life," says Dr. Carey, "depends upon the perfect functioning and health of your kidneys so whatever you do don't neglect them." Dr. Carey's famous Prescription No. 777 (known for years as Marshroot) is not recommended for anything, but we cannot too strongly urge its use if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequent passing of water night and day, with smarting or irritation brick dust sediment or highly colored urine, bloating, irritability with loss of flesh, or any other tendency to Bright's Disease, Diabetes or Gravel for kidney disease in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Don't wait until tomorrow to begin the use of this wonderful prescription now obtainable in both liquid and tablet form if you have any of the above symptoms. Kidney and Bladder troubles don't wear away. They will grow upon you slowly, stealthily and with unending certainty. If you even suspect that you are subject to Kidney Disease, don't lose a single day for Bayre & Hemphill and ever good druggist has been authorized to return the purchase money on the first big bottle to all who state they have received no benefit.

FINE CORREGGIO LONG LOST FOUND IN NEW YORK CHURCH

New York, Jan. 16.—In the fifteenth century the world of art was thrown into consternation. One of the famous Correggio paintings in the series of four of "Nativity" had disappeared from its gallery in Europe. Whether the canvas had been stolen or lost or destroyed could not be definitely established, despite a thorough search by the best investigators. Their search was fruitless.

Thirty-five years ago Henry Hyams, Brooklyn art dealer, attended an auction sale at a Brooklyn warehouse. A group of dusty pictures was offered Hyams made a nominal bid. When no one volunteered a higher offer the pictures were "knocked down" to him.

Hyams had long been an art collector. He cleaned the pictures he purchased, but one of them, because of its beauty and a something holy and sacred about it, excited his fancy. He worked on the canvas, and under his skillful handling the picture slowly turned out to be a real work of art. Slowly and laboriously Hyams brought out new lights, new colorings, new shadings on the canvas. And then he gasped. For the painting proved to be a Correggio. Hyams was astonished at his find. He refused to believe his own discovery and called in art experts. They came with microscopes, carefully examined the picture and then shared Hyams' awe and wonder. The picture was a Correggio.

Two other pictures of the group hang in the Parma and Dresden galleries and are valued at $100,000 each.

The third was destroyed by fire. And the fourth, which is considered the most valuable of the lot, came to light under such novel circumstances.

A year ago Hyams died. The picture was his chief treasure. His son, Henry Hyams, Jr., to whom it was willed, gave it to the Church of the Assumption, where it hangs today.

"During my father's lifetime he could never be persuaded to part with the picture, although he frequently loaned it for exhibition purposes," said Hyams. "When he died and the picture came into my possession I decided that, as he had preferred it to all of his paintings in his possession, I would give it to some public institution as a memorial to him."

"Since it is a church painting I felt that I should select some church, and, although neither my father nor myself was a Catholic, I felt that the nature of the painting made it more adapted to the Catholic Church than any other and for that reason decided upon the Church of the Assumption."

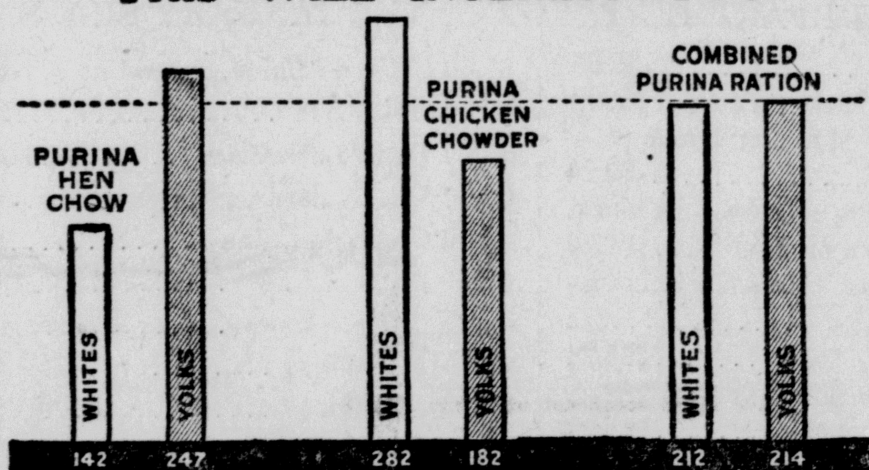

Father William B. Farrell, rector of the church, and himself a connoisseur is fully convinced as to the genuineness of the painting, but intends to have other experts familiar with the works of the great Correggio examine it.

"It is a very beautiful picture," he declared. "I believe it is a Correggio. I base my judgment on the color treatment and also on the grouping. There are certain lights and shades about the angels who form the background of the picture, and the Infant Jesus is pictured in a way characteristic of Correggio. I feel very confident that the canvas is genuine, but purely for the purpose of definitely identifying a historic work of art I intend to have it passed upon by experts who are more familiar with the work of this master."

MERCHANTS WILL PLAY ANTIOCH 5

The South Side Merchants of the city loop will meet the Greek Wops, a Wittenberg College team, from Springfield as the main preliminary to the high school basketball game between Xenia Central and Greenfield McClain at the high school gym Saturday night.

The Merchants are trotting along in the lead in the municipal league but dropped a hard game at Miamisburg Wednesday night 26 to 25 to the faculty team of Miamisburg High School made up of former college stars. The Greek Wops are made up of fraternity athletes at Coach Earl Burgner's alma mater, and he is bringing his former schoolmates down here in the hopes that they will be soundly trounced.

The first preliminary will be played between the sixth grade teams of Central and McKinley schools and possibly a game between fourth grade teams may be played before that. The Central-McClain game will start about 8:30 o'clock.

FRANCE SEIZES
COAL HARBORS;
TO WORK MINES

Barges and Boats Being Requisitioned By Authorities

NO CONFISCATIONS

German Coal Magnates to Appear Before Court Martial

Essen, Jan. 18.—The French military authorities today seized the harbors of Ruhrort and Duisburg. Barges and boats are being requisitioned along the Rhine to carry coal, coke and supplies.
M. Coste, French director of operations and coal expert of the French ministry of public works, made the definite statement today that the French do not plan the confiscation of German property.
The situation throughout the Ruhr is one of intense anticipation. It was somewhat, however, by M. Coste's statement that there would be no confiscation.
France's change of attitude led to a report that secret negotiations had been opened between the French and Germans.

Paris, Jan. 18.—Twenty-one owners of German coal mines in the Ruhr have been notified to appear before a French court martial to explain why they refused to obey the orders of the Franco-Belgian-Italian industrial commission to deliver coal for shipment to the allies, said a dispatch from Essen today.

To Requisition Coal
The French decided to requisition coal that has already been mined and the work of taking it over for shipment to France and Belgium is under way.

The French claim that 150,000 tons of coal and an equal amount of coke is due daily to the allies.

From Tuesday night until last night the French routed to France freight trains bearing 597 tons of coal and 5,812 tons of Ruhr coke.

French officers declare that the number of troops in the Rhineland and Ruhr is insufficient and that more are necessary to carry out the French program and to avoid trouble. There are about fifty thousand troops on hand now. Officers said that about 25,000 more are necessary.

An official representative of the German government conferred with the coal section of the inter-allied reparations commission at Essen. The outcome of the conference was not revealed.

An Essen dispatch to the Petit Journal said that German coal and iron magnates were "impatient to be arrested and imprisoned so that they would appear as martyrs in the eyes of the German people."

Despite the change of attitude on the part of Rome, France was understood to be sounding out Italy to ascertain if a regiment of troops would be supplied to take the place of the American army of occupation which is leaving Coblenz.

WOULD INCREASE
MUSIC TEACHERS

Columbus, Jan. 18.—That the number of music teachers in county schools, be increased, school orchestras and choral work be organized, that there be a wider county supervision adjusted to the local situation and that the state music memory contest be promoted was urged by Mrs. Nell I. Sharpe, state supervisor of music, addressing a meeting here of county school superintendents.

SISTERS SEEK DIVORCE

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Anna Kroeb, a bride of 17, and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kroeb, 22, filed a joint petition for divorce here from their husbands, John and Mathias Kroeb, brothers, residents of Detroit. The sisters were sent to America by their father in 1921 to marry the men, whom they had never seen before.

ANOTHER SCHOOLHOUSE BURNS

Logan, O., Jan. 18.—The Haydenville schoolhouse was completely destroyed by fire of unknown origin. Damage was estimated at $20,000. Four teachers and 125 children attended the Haydenville school. Last Monday night the Pattonville schoolhouse, about a mile and a half west of Logan, suffered a fire, the floor burning out. Last week the schoolhouse at Coalgate was damaged by fire. Authorities are investigating.

ATTACKED KLANSMEN

Daytona, Fla., Jan. 18.—Charles Pant, former policeman, shot through the arm by Chief of Police Joseph Osborne after he disrobed two Ku Klux Klan men on parade, is not seriously hurt, according to physicians. Chief Osborne also suffered slight wounds when he was attacked by a crowd.

IMMIGRANT ONLY
27 INCHES TALL

Washington, Jan. 18.—The United States government will not stand in the way if Kurt Schneider of Germany, who is only 27 inches tall, wants to make his future home in this country.
Schneider, and his two little sisters, Freda and Hilda, were barred by immigration authorities at Ellis Island, but the Department of Labor today decided they should be admitted after furnishing satisfactory bond.

DONAHEY IDEAS
INTRODUCED IN TWO NEW BILLS

Would Transfer State Auto
Licensing Department.

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Substitution of an interlocutory decree for the present absolute decree of divorce in Ohio is provided for in a bill introduced by Rep. Hunt, Lucas County, pending in the House today.

The interlocutory decree would become final at the end of a year provided both parties acted properly. Neither party could remarry before the year had expired.

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Democratic members of the house introduced the first proposals to carry out recommendations made by Governor Donahey in his message to the legislature.

One would transfer the state automobile licensing department from the secretary of state to the state penitentiary under direction of the welfare department, and place the issuance of licenses with county treasurers. The other would put teeth into the blue sky law.

The automobile registration bill, introduced by Representative Kennedy of Brown county, besides transferring automobile registration from the secretary of state to the penitentiary, would change the date of issuing licenses from Jan. 1 to March 1. The county treasurer would issue the licenses and divide the fees between the state and county. He also would handle the transfer of machines from one owner to another, a function now performed by the clerk of courts.

An amendment to the "blue sky" law was offered by Representative Fair of Holmes county. It would give the commissioner of securities power to compel attendance of witnesses and production of books by applicants to sell securities and also require corporations dealing in securities to file sworn annual statements of outstanding stock, inventory and liabilities.

To Transfer Money.

Transfer of money now in the general revenue fund to the state highway fund to make up for the $5,000,000 collected annually heretofore by direct taxes, but which was abolished by the first bill passed by the present assembly, was provided by a bill introduced by Representative Edwards of Cuyahoga county. The bill would make $2,600,000 available from the general revenue fund for the latter part of this year and $5,100,000 annually thereafter.

A similar bill will be introduced soon to take care of the abolished levy for aid to weak school districts. That measure is expected to provide for transfer of approximately $3,000,000 annually from the general revenue fund to the weak school district fund, a sum almost double that derived heretofore from the state tax levy that was abolished by the same bill that abolished the road levy.

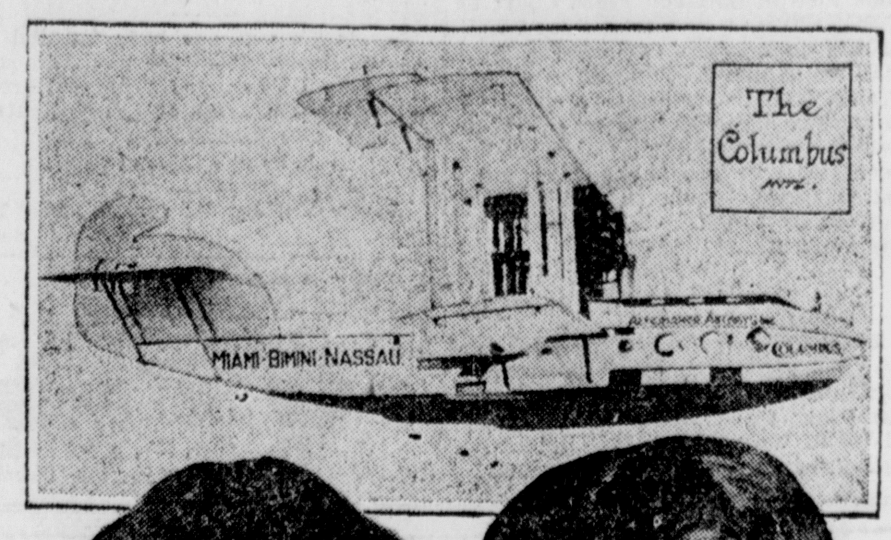

Temporary financial relief for municipalities which find themselves unable to operate without creating a deficit, is provided by a bill introduced in the house by Representative Hunt of Lucas county. It would permit an extra tax levy of not more than two mills by majority vote of the electors to run for not more than four years, to take care of deficits originating prior to Jan. 1, 1924, and also for current operating expenses.

A bill to eliminate party emblems from the Australian ballot in Ohio elections and to adopt the Massachusetts plan was introduced in the senate by Senator Bender of Cuyahoga county.

Senator Kumer, Preble county, introduced another election bill, providing that in primary elections the ballot shall indicate the county in which each candidate resides and, in the case of county commissioners, it shall show the townships. This is aimed to prevent confusion of names where candidates with the same name are running for one office.

Senator Adair, Wayne county, proposed an absent voter law. He would require voters who expect to be absent on election day to go to the presiding judge of the precinct and register his vote three days before election, or, in case of a sick voter, he would have an election officer go to the voter's home.

FOUR PERISH IN FLYING BOAT

Mrs. E. F. Atkins, Jr.

When the immense flying boat Columbus was forced down into a high sea 20 miles off Havana, Edwin F. Atkins, New York millionaire, president of the Cuba States Limited Sugar Company; his two sons, Edwin 3rd, aged 5, and David, aged 3 with Miss Grace McDonald their governess, perished. The car float Flagler saved Mrs. Atkins, Otto Abraham, a New York broker; Miss Julia Haverly, W. E. Miller, the pilot, and Harold Thompson, the mechanic.

GERMANY IN FIGHTING
MOOD BUT LACKS ARMS

Minister of Interior Declares That Nation Would Go to War With France if She Had Munitions.

Berlin, Jan. 18.—Germany is in a fighting mood and only lack of arms and munitions prevents her from going to war against France to avenge seizure of the Ruhr, Minister of Interior Oeser declared today.

"The German people would spring to arms instantly at the government's call if they could," said Herr Oeser. We want no arms and anyhow the government in control now does not want war, but wants only peace."

Herr Oeser charged that France is not seeking reparations, but is striving to destroy Germany entirely. The German official believes that France will fail. He predicted that France would collapse within five years.

"France is only chasing a will o' the wisp in trying to destroy the German nation," continued Minister Oeser. "It is impossible for less than 40,000,000 French to subjugate 60,000,000 Germans, particularly when the German nation has the greater virility. France cannot last five years at this rate. France does not want reparations. Every act makes this plain. Occupation of the Ruhr is just another step in the French policy of destruction. France could have made an everlasting friend of Germany if she had only made a generous gesture after the war."

"But France refused to make a generous gesture. Now the seeds of hatred that will last for a century are being sown. Even though the Germans can not resist with weapons,

CLEVELAND TO GO AHEAD WITH DEPOT

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—Fortified by a decision of insolvency Judge Addams, sustaining the right to condemn property for depot purposes, the Van Sweringen interests, backers of the depot on the square, were preparing to go ahead today with the construction of Cleveland's new $60,000,000 union station.

It was indicated today that with legal technicalities swept aside work would be actively under way within a few months, and that thousands of men would shortly be engaged excavating for the new structure.

WOMAN KILLS FATHER

Alliance, O., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Mabel Mae Pfifer, confessed slayer of her father, Jacob Howell, whom she said she shot and killed because of his abusing and tormenting her and her two children, was held for the grand jury without bail on a charge of first degree murder.

THEATER CATCHES FIRE

Findlay, O., Jan. 18.—Eight hundred persons marched quietly out of the Majestic theater here last night when fire broke out in the operator's booth and for a time threatened destruction of the building. C. Weakley, the operator was burned about the hands and face, and Charles K. Farling who went to his rescue, also suffered slight burns.

HOPE TO COMPLETE
STRIKERS ROUNDUP

Harrison, Ark., Jan. 18.—Apparently ignoring the multifarious rumors being circulated, the committee of citizens today expected soon to complete the "round up" of strikers and sympathizers in the arson plot against the Missouri and North Arkansas railroad.

The committee, assisted by deputy sheriffs, is working systematically in the collection of its evidence to give the grand jury. A few homes of accused strikers have been searched but there has been no violence here. Other strikers have refrained from threats. Only a few who were not implicated in the plot to destroy the property of the Missouri and North Arkansas railroad have remained in the city.
Citizens here appear satisfied that the plot of the incendiaries has been frustrated and that there will be no further disruptions in train service.

COAL STRIKE IS NOT PROBABLE
DURING SPRING

Operators and Miners In Agreement On This Point.

New York, Jan. 18.—Leading coal operators of the country are in conference here today with 100 officials of the United Mine Workers of America.

An agreement which would eliminate the possibility of another general coal strike this spring, is sought.

The union delegates, comprising the general policies committee of the mine workers, are confident of the success of their mission in one vital respect. They and the operators are agreed, they said, that future contracts should protect the union against such simultaneous strikes in hard and soft coal mines as existed for five months last year.

The miners also expressed a conviction that there would be no strike in the bituminous mines this year, although their existing contract, the Cleveland agreement, which ended the strike last August, expires April 1.

Of the anthracite situation they were not so optimistic. But, since the hard coal workers' contract continues until Aug. 15, the danger of a strike in both anthracite and bituminous industries was remote, they said.

John L. Lewis, president of the mine workers' organization, called the conference, which is expected to continue for a week. Virtually every big operator in the four recognized "competitive fields" are represented, as well as a score or more from outlying fields from a dozen states.

Phil A. Penna, secretary of the Indiana coal association, sits as chairman of the joint conference. Besides Mr. Lewis, the miners are represented by Phil Murray of Pittsburgh, vice president of the United Mine Workers of America; William Green of Indianapolis, secretary-treasurer; Ellis Searies of the American Federation of Labor at Washington, and district delegates to the general policies commission.

Notice has been served on the coal miners of Nova Scotia by the international executive board of the United Mine Workers that they can not affiliate with the "red international" labor organizations of Moscow and at the same time remain members of the United Mine Workers.

FEAR LYNCHING AS RESULT OF MURDER

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 18.—Four striking shopmen of the Rock Island railroad, charged with participation in the murder last week of Guy Cornwell, at Trenton, Mo., were rushed here today to prevent lynching. They are in the county jail.

Cornwell, a shop worker, was beaten to death. The four men are Guy Hiles, William Alladice, Charles Peterson and Homer Stamper.

CORK THREATENED WITH ISOLATION

Dublin, Jan. 18.—Two free state soldiers were killed and two others captured in an ambush attack by Irish regulars in county Tipperary today. Three men were wounded in an ambush in county Mayo.

Dublin, Jan. 18.—Republican irregulars today threatened Cork with isolation by land and sea. Railways were torn up and the dock workers are threatening to strike. No boats are entering or leaving the harbor.

The English channel steamer Sluvenamon, suspected of carrying arms for the Irish rebels, was captured off Cork harbor and searched by the British.

AMERICAN WOMEN
FIGHT EPIDEMICS

Athens, Greece, Jan. 18.—American women will install, finance and direct the largest medical quarantine station in the world on the island of Macronisi, 30 miles south of Athens, in an effort to cope with the unprecedented epidemic outbreak among near east refugees in Greece.

Dr. Mabel Elliott, director of the American Women's hospitals, arranged with the Greek government to take over the entire island and equip it with facilities for handling 10,000 refugees at one time. The island, 10 miles long and two miles wide, is now uninhabited, but Dr. Elliott plans to set up 2,500 tents and disinfecting plants and soup kitchens.
Because of the pressing emergency, Dr. Elliott has guaranteed to have the station in operation within six days.

MAY TAKE STEP
AGAINST LARGE
ALCOHOL FIRMS

Grand Jury Action Likely
Against Large Distributors

Washington, Jan. 18.—Grand jury action may be taken against some of the largest distributors of alcohol in the country, it was said today at prohibition headquarters.

Acting prohibition commissioner Jones charged these distributors with responsibility for a large volume of the bootleg liquor recently turned loose in big cities, among them New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Cleveland, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Buffalo. Millions of gallons of this alcohol are said to have been diverted to illegal channels.

Reports to prohibition headquarters from federal district attorneys in large cities disclosed, it is understood that when government investigators checked back on the bootleg liquor, the trail ultimately led to the dispensers of industrial alcohol, operating under a government license.

Prohibition officials would divulge no details today, other than to say an exhaustive investigation is under way and grand jury action is possible against a number of large distributors. Scores of permits also are being cancelled.

WOMEN APPEAL TO KLAN CHIEF

Bastrop, La., Jan. 18.—Ashes of broken romances are drifting into Morehouse parish today from every section of the country as unhappy women lay bare souls in written appeals to Captain J. K. Skidworth, exalted cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan and storm center in the tempest created by the "hooded mob" murders.

Pathos and bitterness are linked in these appeals. The writers urge the aged klan leader to send his hooded followers far from home on crusades against modern vice.

It was by some odd twist of fate that broken hearted women turned for sympathy and assistance to the greyed and wrinkled "father of the klan" in Morehouse. Many of the appeals carried names and addresses and these were forwarded by the captain to klan headquarters at Atlanta.

WOMAN SLASHED AND ROBBED OF $100

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—A woman was attacked, slashed with a razor and robbed of $100 by a negro maniac shortly before 11 o'clock this morning at the home of Samuel Adams, caretaker of the Mathew Andrews estate in the east end, according to a report to police.

The man is believed to be the same one who for hours yesterday terrorized homes on the east side, robbing a number of women, and shooting but not seriously wounding two.

DRIVEN OUT BY FIRE

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—Fifty persons were driven to the street in night clothes early today when fire swept through two apartment buildings. One policeman was badly cut by flying glass when he forced his way into a building in Kinsman road, to rescue persons caught by the flames.

IDENTIFIED AS
MEMBER OF MOB

Sensation is Sprung at Open Hearing In Louisiana

NAMED BY FARMER

Wealthy Resident Alleged to Have Taken Part in Kidnaping.

Courthouse, Bastrop, La., Jan. 18.—A sensation was sprung at the open hearing today when F. N. Grey, church leader and wealthy farmer, was identified as a member of the "hooded mob" which kidnaped five former Mer Rouge citizens last August. The identification was made from the witness stand, by Fred Eubanks, a Collinston farmer.

SHOOTING CASE IS OPENED THURSDAY
IN COMMON PLEAS

The trial of Elvia Sullinger, 27, colored, indicted by the Grand Jury last fall began in Common Pleas Court Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

Sullinger is alleged to have shot Choice Kennedy, colored, Mrs. Choice Kennedy and the latter's mother, Mrs. Grace Roberts, at their home the latter part of last August. Sullinger had been renting a house belonging to Mrs. Roberts and the shooting is said to have followed an argument over payments of the rent. Sullinger himself was shot by Kennedy who obtained a shot-gun and fired at Sullinger after the latter had emptied a revolver.

Prosecuting Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson, who is prosecuting Sullinger, called a number of witnesses Thursday morning, Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Roberts and a number of witnesses to the shooting giving their testimony on the stand. The state rested at 11:30 o'clock and the defense, represented by Attorney F. L. Johnson, will call a number of witnesses during the afternoon.

The jury hearing the case is composed of J. M. Carper, Heber Douthett, H. W. Simson, Marjorie Moyer, Fred McClain, A. L. Bigler, Charles Sears, J. A. Piper, James Patterson, Brant U. Bell, Elbert L. Babb and Fred Woolary.

URGE REDUCING ALL
ROAD ASSESSMENTS

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Recommendation that the state legislature reduce road assessments on the state highways to a minimum of 15 per cent of the cost of construction was registered at a meeting of the legislative committee of the Ohio Good Roads Federation.

The committeemen, including T. R. Dahl, Cleveland, G. A. Waddell, Akron asserted that the future of the Buckeye State as a progressive road building state depends upon relieving the farmers burden of excessive assessments.

WOMAN IS STABBED
BY ANGRY WIFE

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Rebecca Barnett, 39 years old, was stabbed to death in a south side flat today. The police arrested Mrs. Hazel Cox, 28.

"That Barnett woman has been playing around with my husband," Mrs. Cox said, according to the police. The victim was stabbed three times in the body. The stabbing came in the midst of a "party."

MADMAN INVADERS DWELLINGS

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—A man believed to be insane invaded five homes here, shot and wounded Isaac Shindler, 42, attacked six women and robbed two persons. He concluded his reign of terror by taking flight in Kingsbury run, with police and detectives on his trail.

OUTOS DESTROYED

East Liverpool, O., Jan. 18.—Fire swept part of the Litten Motor Sales company garage, destroying 38 automobiles and causing damages estimated at $60,000. Most of the automobiles were owned privately and stored in the garage. Cause of the fire is undetermined.

OIL PRICE ADVANCES

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 18.—The Joseph Seep Purchasing Agency here buyers for Standard Oil, announced effective at 10 o'clock today an advance of 10 cents a barrel for crude oil, at the well for eastern grades except Ragland and Corning which are unchanged.

BROADSTONE BILLS
KILLED IN HOUSE
COMMITTEE SESSION

Two bills introduced by Representative M. A. Broadstone of this city, aimed at attacks made by masked persons, but ostensibly aimed at the Ku Klux Klan, received rough treatment from the House Judiciary Committee Wednesday.

The bill introduced by Representative Broadstone making an assault or threat by a masked person a felony punishable by a term of from one to 15 years in the state penitentiary, was the first bill killed in this session of the state legislature by a legislative committee. The House Judiciary Committee killed this proposed measure by a vote of 11 to 2.

The same committee also amended the second bill introduced by Mr. Broadstone, so that this measure now provides that any masked person who slays another while attempting to commit a felony is guilty of murder in the first degree. The bill, as originally drafted provided that any masked person attempting to commit a misdemeanor or felony should be guilty of first degree murder if a death follow, ed.

The amendment decided upon by the committee does not materially change the effects of the second bill. In an interview given out in Columbus several days ago, Representative Broadstone said his bills were not aimed at the Ku Klux Klan, although he was not a member of that organization, but were made general so as to affect any person or organization committing an attack while disguised or masked, whether that be a member of the Klan or any organization.

DEBT COMMISSION
SAILS SATURDAY

Washington, Jan. 18.—Negotiations between the American and British debt commissions concerning the refunding of Great Britain's war debt to the United States have reached a stage regarded as making desirable a personal report by the British to the cabinet at home before the continuation of efforts to reach even a tentative agreement on terms.

The conversation which has been going on here for 10 days will be suspended after today's joint session and the British will sail from New York on Saturday. The time and manner of the resumption of the negotiations then will rest with the London government.

In both British and American circles it was emphasized that there would be only a suspension of the negotiations; that a settlement of the debt, the greatest single international financial transaction in the history of the world, must and would be reached.

ALLEGED ROBBER
WILL KNOW FATE

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—"Big Jim" Morton, said by the state to be the "most dangerous criminal in Ohio," may know his fate by nightfall. He has been on trial all week charged with the robbery of the west Cleveland Bank in June, 1919, when $65,000 was secured by armed bandits. Morton, who was heretofore convicted and granted a new trial, depends upon an alibi to secure his freedom.

MISSING MINISTER
FINALLY LOCATED

Marysville, O., Jan. 18.—Rev. H. C. Tervehn, Lutheran minister, who mysteriously disappeared Dec. 27 from his home here, has been a patient at the Allegheny general hospital, Pittsburgh, since last Sunday. The minister, a victim, according to hospital officials, of "hysterical amnesia," has steadfastly refused to give any information concerning himself. He entered the hospital as an "unknown." His condition is not regarded as serious.

Now is the time to fight constipation with Bran—Start to-day!

Don't give the diseases that follow in the track of constipation a chance to lodge in your system! Get after constipation with nature's greatest helper—BRAN. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled—because it is ALL BRAN and because it will give you permanent relief from constipation! It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that.
Bran's action is wonderful. It sweeps and cleanses and purifies. It knocks out the dangerous toxic poisons and frees the system from pollution! Try Kellogg's Bran for a week. Eat it regularly—two tablespoonsful each day; as much each meal in chronic cases. You will be astounded at the difference in your feelings!
Kellogg's Bran should not be confused with common bran which is unpalatable and difficult to eat. Kellogg's is cooked and all ready to serve and really delicious. Eat it as a cereal, sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal or cook or mix it with hot cereal. In the latter cases add two tablespoonsful for each person.
Do you realize what Kellogg's Bran can do for you and for your family; do you realize that it will keep sickness away; that it will put every one on a new health footing; that it will free you all from pills and cathartics? Kellogg's Bran is particularly delightful made in raisin bread, in macaroons, popovers, muffins, etc. Recipes are printed on each package! You will say that Kellogg's Bran is a blessing to humanity.
All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran!

HAVE TO GET UP NIGHTS FOR BLADDER RELIEF?

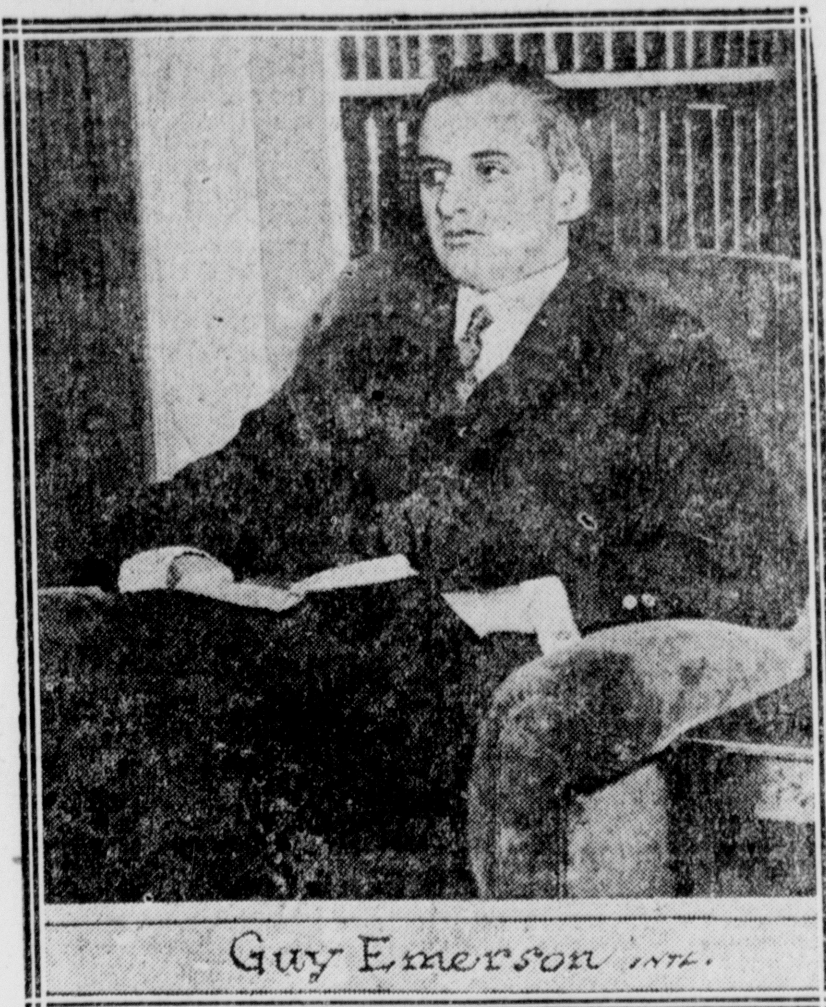

Try Simple Method This Dayton Man Reports Relieved Him Quickly

Mr. Wm. D. Ostermeyer, 326 East Second St., says in his own home paper the Dayton Daily News: "My bladder caused me to get up many times at night and also inconvenienced me as often as every 30 minutes in the day. After taking a few Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) tablets my bladder is perfectly normal. They also relieved a very lame back for me. It gives me much pleasure to tell my friends about these little tablets."

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom Salts do on the bowels. It cleans them out. It is not a patent medicine, as the formula is on the package. The tablets cost 2c each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several high-priced drugs, which are useful for relief, very likely you have never taken anything like this remedy. Try a few doses for backache, scalding, scanty or high colored urine, and frequent desire at night.

You can get Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) Sayre and Hemphill and drug stores everywhere or write The Keller

HONEYMOON STATE OF MIND SAYS POLA NEGRI WHOSE ENGAGEMENT TO CHAPLIN IS ANNOUNCED

Monterey, Cal., Jan. 18.—Pola Negri says that a honeymoon is a state of mind.

If that is so she may be enjoying a "mental honeymoon" here at Pebble Beach lodge on the shores of Monterey Bay.

Charlie Chaplin is not here in person on this "honeymoon trip", but his spirit is expressed in the flowers that fill the rooms, in the constant long distance telephone messages that come from him from Los Angeles and telegrams that further punctuate the day.

Charlie Chaplin left Santa Barbara for Hollywood on Sunday. Pola Negri and her personal retinue motored up here to the lodge at Pebble Beach, which is practically deserted at this time of year. She is registered as Countess Dombksi, the name she acquired by virtue of her marriage to the Polish count from whom she is divorced.

RAILROAD COMPANY IGNORES ORDER TO RESUME OLD SERVICE

In spite of an order issued in Common Pleas Court at Cincinnati by Judge Stanley Rooting requiring the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to resume passenger train service on the schedule in effect before the change was made last Sunday, no change has yet been made on service in this city, officials say.

The order of Judge Rooting required that the company resume the old schedule until the hearing on the proposed change before the public utilities commission next Tuesday, January 23, which date the commission had originally set for a hearing of the case.

The Company put into effect a new schedule of curtailed passenger service Sunday, after the utilities commission had ordered that the road withhold the schedule until the proposed changes could be heard by the commission. The Company ignored the order in changing its schedule. The new schedule has cut off several passenger trains and changed stopping schedules of a number of through trains.

Officials here said Thursday that although rumors had been received here that the Company was to go on the old schedule, that no official orders to that effect had been received here, and that now the trains are operating on the new schedule.

BEWARE OF DRUGS

Medicial Authorities Advise Caution in the Use of Preparations Liable to Contain Powerful Drugs.

Never drug your system to relieve or prevent colds, grippe or "flu." Drugs are liable to affect the nervous system or weaken the heart.

Hot medicinal tea is now recommended by many physicians, because it is best for the human system, acts quickly on the bowels and intestines by eliminating the excess poisonous wastes that usually tend to lower your physical resistance. Just pure, refreshing, healthful herbs from nature; that is why millions are now using Bulgarian Herb Tea to relieve and break up bad colds, and oals keep the poisons flushed from the system. Many physicians now prescribe Bulgarian Herb Tea, and your druggist can honestly recommend it.

RUB RHEUMATIC, ACHING JOINTS AND STOP PAIN

St. Jacobs Oil stops any pain, and rheumatism is pain only.

Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging! Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil right into your sore, stiff, aching joints, and relief comes instantly. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism liniment, which never disappoints, and cannot burn the skin. Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacobs Oil at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness and stiffness. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. St. Jacobs Oil is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.

Mother-To-Be, Read This—

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first child I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Note: Write for valuable, free illustrated book, "Motherhood and the Baby," containing important authoritative information which every expectant mother should have, and all about "Mother's Friend," to prairie Regulator Company, B.A.-23, Atlanta, Ga. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists everywhere.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

WHEN "DUTY" CALLS WE NEVER SHIRK.

Four millions of armed men and thirty billions of dollars, thrown into the scales of a struggle between the two greatest aggregations of political and military force ever known in history, would have bought any kind of world order and harmony that the most idealistic could have desired. But this presupposes wisdom and foresight enough in the seats of the mighty to have made the definite bargain before the price was paid. The better acquainted with the innermost facts the thoughtful student of politics and history becomes, the more obvious will be the truth of these remarks. It does not follow, however, that because we went to war with no agreements whatever for achieving anything beyond a military victory, we are absolved from further responsibility. We would discredit every sacrifice that we had made, and we would cast doubt upon our high motives and good intentions, if we attempted to resume precisely that pose of isolation to which we were accustomed in pre-war times. While we will not permit particular European prime ministers, or cabinets, or foreign newspaper writers, or visiting lecturers to instruct us in our duties and obligations, we will see realities from our own standpoint.

Whenever there is anything going on "over there" in which we feel that we have an interest, say in the adjustment of affairs in which we had taken part, we have deemed it proper to have on hand an "observer" who makes it his business to keep our administration posted. This is quite a different thing from an "entangling alliance" such as the League of Nations provided for and which we refused to take part in.

We have not forgotten the noble words of the immortal Washington in his Farewell Address: "Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence I conjure you to believe me, fellow citizens, the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake."

In all time there never before was such a mixup of "entangling" affairs in the old world as at present, and it behooves us to keep out of it as much as possible. The more the better.

THE GENERAL OUTLOOK IS PRETTY DARK.

As we enter upon a New Year and try to compare conditions with those that prevailed at the opening of 1922, there are no bold contrasts that can be set forth in a few sentences. If one were alluding to world conditions in terms of weather, the skies were generally overcast a year ago, with mist and fog prevailing in some regions and storms more or less violent reported from one place and another. The fateful Year 1923 arrives with not less dubious weather, and finds dark clouds hovering over extensive portions of what was once known as the civilized world. The optimists can at least encourage one another by saying that—since bright skies will surely make their appearance some time—we must be exactly one year nearer a normal, prosperous, and happy world than we were a year ago.

If, indeed, a new era in the story of human welfare were solely dependent upon the world's political and diplomatic leadership, the pessimists might well claim that the arguments were nearly all on their side. The European countries that took the principal parts on both sides in the Great War have not been led thus far by their Prime Ministers and their rulers into pleasant paths of mutual helpfulness. They have not stood firmly by the agreements they made in the settlements that were signed, sealed, and delivered in the summer of 1919 at Versailles. Nor have they been able to modify those agreements in any satisfactory way.

SCHOOLING BY FAMILIES.

In June a father, mother and their three children will be graduated from the University of Oklahoma. This probably constitutes a record for family unity in education.

It is a pleasure to think about that family advancing together. A nation in which social and educational systems make such a thing practical is not approaching decadence. It is a reason for optimism of the most untroubled variety.

There is a growing tendency for people of adult years to realize that educational opportunities do not close with the early twenties, and to avail themselves of the opportunities for growth and higher culture which are open on every hand.

Where this fashion is followed there will be no old parents sitting by the fireside in later years, grieving because the children have outgrown them; there will be no children grieving over parents who have not kept pace with them and the world, or secretly ashamed of parental ignorance. It is a pity that even where parents cannot literally go to school and college with their children they do not more commonly take definite measures for keeping with them as nearly as they can.

ALL KINDS CLIMATE.

The other day it was 30 degrees below zero in Montana and at the same hour, 74 degrees above in Florida. Here is a difference of 104 degrees Fahrenheit. Can any other country in the world show the same range of temperature?

One of the resources of the United States is this wide variation in climate. At almost any season of the year a citizen with leisure and money to travel can find almost any climate he wants. And in most places a citizen can accomplish the same purpose without traveling, if he has a little patience. If he stays right where he is, the kind of climate he prefers will come to him at some time in the year.

This almost infinite climatic variety is in itself one of the most powerful factors in our national prosperity, as well as a source of pleasure and health. It promotes travel which is profitable; but that is only a small part of it. Climatic variation results in enormous variety of agricultural and manufactured products, stimulating industry and trade. It is one of the chief reasons why the United States is a world in itself, almost economically independent.

There are 2374 newspapers published daily in the United States.

Taunton, Mass., is the greatest tack-making city in the world.

United States produces more than 20 per cent of the world's supply of gold.

Idaho and Wyoming are the greatest centers for range sheep in the country.

New York produces more than one-twelfth of the manufactures of the United States.

BEING JUST AS EXASPERAING AS POSSIBLE

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

The big coal dock which has just been completed west of the Pan Handle depot is an object of a good deal of pride to the carpenters and mechanics who constructed it. It is 590 feet in length, and its height at its highest place, is 25 feet and six inches. There are 39 trestles of yellow pine beneath the structure.

Mr. M. F. Barrows, the insurance agent is making preparations for an extended trip to old Mexico. He will leave within a few days and will be absent for a couple of months on business.

Governor Nash yesterday sent to the sheriff of Greene County a letter which is in effect a proclamation to the citizens of Xenia to stop stealing coal from the cars of the Pennsylvania company. He threatens to use the power of the state to protect the property of the corporation if necessary.

The sensational dispatches sent out from Xenia as to coal rioting in the Pan Handle yards and an army of men with Winchester seeking coal has caused this city to gain considerable notoriety in fact a bad reputation, many persons thinking that the city is in a state of anarchy, owing to the false reports.

A MISUNDERSTOOD TYPE.

No girl wants to be thought mannish—no normal girl, that is, but certain so-called mannish traits are becoming to many types and should be more common than they are.

The habit of straight thinking, which men are pleased to think is an attribute of their sex, is a habit that most women should cultivate. A woman is supposed to think vaguely, her mind is said to go round in a circle—and too often it's true. The habit of looking at a subject squarely, without taking in too many unrelated circumstances, is supposed to be "masculine"—and I notice that old-fashioned women haven't it, and that up to date ones have.

But we don't want to get into a deep discussion. Certain qualities of straight forward honesty, loyalty, and above all others, leniency in judging others are supposed to be mannish, but every woman should cultivate them.

There's one type of girl, however, who is always called "mannish" and who isn't really, who represents this term intensely. I know one of her sort. Barbara M. Barbara's men friends call her a good sport and a good pal, and don't flit with her nor hold her hand under such sentimental influences as the moon, because they know her "masculine" sense of humor will make her laugh at them. They call her "masculine" because she's efficient in her work, because she sharpens a pencil correctly—though what that has to do with it, is beyond me! Because she throws a ball well, throwing from the shoulder, not the elbow, because she walks with an easy swing, swims well and can repair her own motor when something goes wrong.

So feminine Barbara is misunderstood on account of certain intelligent characteristics. Sometimes I believe all men think of us as Dickens or Thackeray painted women.

Longing:—There is no reason why a girl of 16 should reduce the size of the bust as a few more years of growth will bring the whole figure into proper proportions. With a height of five feet three and weight 145 pounds you are 25 pounds overweight, so the best thing for you to do is to try to reduce all over by eating less starchy food.

Edith:—Your hair is getting thin because of a sluggish scalp. Massage the scalp with olive oil the night before the regular shampoo and never use any caustic soap when washing the hair. The old fashioned castle soap makes the best shampoo for hair that is brittle and dry as yours. Massage the scalp every night to improve the circulation.

SOLD PENS TO DEAD MEN

Indianapolis, Jan. 18.—Selling fountain pens to dead men brought Robert C. Melrose of Wabash a sentence of one year in the penitentiary. Melrose admitted to Judge Anderson that he looked up death notices in newspapers and then mailed a 25-cent fountain pen to each of the various deceased, with a c. o. d. charge of $3. Almost invariably, he said, the bereaved families accepted and paid for the pen.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (if in proved pneumonia). 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

HYMN OF HATE.

In my youth I used to hate with the fervor of a lion; for revenge I'd grimly wait on the luckless hated one; any man who wrought me harm I declared a false alarm and I'd rather lose an arm than forget the ill he'd done. Now I bend beneath the weight of some ninety-seven years; all such bitter words as hate rudely jar upon my ears; age has many penalties, falling hair and aching knees, but the truth an old man sees, it is written down in tears. If a voter does me wrong I forget it in a day; though the memory be strong, I must skoo the thing away; for I'd rather think of pies, or of something else I prize, than to sit and hate the guys who have robbed me of my hay. When my soul is full of peace life's the thing of my desire; I can sit with aunt and niece, happy as a house afire; all the world seems good and fair, harmony is in the air, there's no baseness anywhere, and I gayly whang my lyre. But if hatred's in my heart, balmy peace must pull its freight, for these two must dwell apart, precious peace and horrid hate; and my life, so bright before, suddenly becomes a bore; nothing pleases any more till my evil thoughts abate. Anything opposed to peace is a thing we should avoid; when we've that our troubles cease it's a blessing unalloyed; peace, which soothes our little lives, goes away when hate arrives; peace is dead if hate survives; therefore hate should be destroyed.

Today's Talk

AS THE STARS PARADE

There is something deeply pregnant about the night—its silence, its mystery, its human appeal, its beauty, its invitation to restfulness and meditation.

Whitman beautifully pictures its contrasted feeling when he speaks of it as "the huge and thoughtful night."

Remember that, as a boy, I loved to walk out into the night after supper and encircle the small town in which I lived. In the summertime to hear the strange, light noises of rustling night soul or of the never sleeping crickets, or to stand on the little bridge near the mill dam to hear the soft songs of the creek; and in the wintertime to breathe the crisp air and to hear the crackle of the frost in the snow, as the lights from the huddled houses bespoke warmth and family cheer.

It was at such times that I dreamed of some day becoming a great orator and thrilling huge crowds, or of returning to the home town to the tune of martial music, as their chosen governor or senator—or president!

But now I go out into the night to drink in its beauty and poetry and to meditate upon the richness of life, of the goodness of the Creator, and to rest these body cells of mine that have done their toil during the day.

I no longer desire to be the things that I dreamed of as a boy.

I am quite content with the evolution of time and circumstances—glad of life and a chance to humbly serve. But I would recommend the night as a great educational force and factor. The nights of each season have their own particular appeal in no matter what corner of the globe.

Tonight, let us go out together into the darkness for silent communion under the numberless eyes of the heavens, and let us be grateful for the day, and go to our places of rest with smoothed out minds and cleansed hearts.

And let us love "the huge and thoughtful night."

GRIP RAPIDLY SPREADING OVER GREENE COUNTY

Although the weather, Thursday, brought thoughts of spring, Xenians, who went without their mufflers, and flannel-on-the-chest, were running grave risks of meeting the grip, influenza, and pneumonia, which has rapidly spread over the vicinity recently.

According to local physicians, what is really best for overcoming the present large amount of sickness, is a long spell of severe cold dry weather which will prevent germs from spreading, and endangering lives.

"While the situation in Xenia may be termed an epidemic, and has been quite perplexing, I think the situation is entirely in hand now, and is not cause for worry," said one Xenia doctor Thursday. Xenia has fared better during the siege of grip, "flu" and pneumonia, than other cities of the state, Dayton, Cincinnati, Columbus and Portsmouth being reported to be in the throes of a serious epidemic.

Xenia physicians average having from 10 to 15 cases of grip and light forms of "flu" and are confident that the situation is no worse and possibly abating. Sudden changes in the temperature, of which Thursday was an example, is said by doctors to be dangerous, causing lack of perspiration from the disease. Plenty of fresh air, each hour of the day, particularly ventilation of the bedrooms each night, with exercise, proper food, and warm clothing are essential in combating the disease, say nurses and doctors.

STATE JUBILANT IN HERRIN CASE

Marion, Ill., Jan. 18.—The case of the five union miners charged with murder in the Herrin mine riots of June 21 and 22, was given to the jury shortly before noon today.

The state was jubilant over instructions given the panel by Judge De Witt T. Hartwell. He said:

"It is not against the law to mine coal without being a member of the United Mine Workers of America. If assaulted or killed for no other reason it cannot be justified because they were not members of the organization."

The defense, on the contrary, was pleased with that part of his instructions concerning one defendant, Otis Clark. The bench said that, if the jurors were convinced Clark publicly announced his intention of withdrawing from the mob and did so after becoming acquainted with its purpose his previous acts were not sufficient to prove him guilty.

The bench considered more than 200 instructions.

charges in her petition for divorce, custody, alimony and injunction, and Edward F. Brown, Beaver Creek Township farmer living on the Shakerstown pike is named as offender, who has laid himself open to these charges by, "not going to work until nine o'clock in the morning and wearing the same pair of overalls now, that he donned fresh and clean early last fall."

Instead of following the auto-suggestion methods of Emile Coue, Brown has, "day by day," to quote from the petition filed Wednesday with Clerk of Courts Harvey Elam, been getting worse and worse. And this too, after twenty years of married bliss, trials, tribulations, joy and sorrow. The Browns were married March 27, 1903 and beside one grown child, have three minor children, Lawrence, aged 17, Merle, aged six, and Joseph, aged 4. Although her husband has a 75 acre farm, he did not raise a "single potato" last year, forcing the plaintiff to buy all they used, the petition charges.

But Brown had an excuse, the petition declares. For in answer to her protestations, he told her he was born on the thirteenth day of the month, and by reason of that peculiar fact, did not have to work, could treat her as he pleased and dared her to appeal to the courts.

The farm is worth $7,000 the plaintiff says, and she enumerates the livestock which she declares, she tended. She has kept the family through the sale of milk, but this means of livelihood, she says, is now threatened by an inspector who says the building where the cows are kept will have to be changed, before more milk can be sold. She wants divorce alimony, custody of the children, and an order restraining the defendant from interfering with her children.

EXPENSES INCURRED IN FEEDING SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE SHOWN

Striking an average of the expenditure being met by the various Parent-Teacher Associations of the Xenia City Schools, in feeding milk and wafers to the undernourished children of the schools for the past several months, the expense account of the McKinley Parent-Teacher Association has been reported.

According to figures compiled by officers of the association, $217.32 has been spent since the presentation of "The Microbe of Love" by the Federal Cereals, several weeks ago, in order to give the daily luncheons to the pupils of the McKinley School.

Of this amount $144 was received from the proceeds of the show, $10 being received through donations. It cost the Association $153.58 for milk and wafers since January 15, the weekly cost being $18.64 an average of $3.52 being received each week from the pupils of the school. The balance remaining in the McKinley Association treasury at the present time totals $62.74.

Members of the Association are urging the support of school patrons and the public, at the supper to be given February 1, at six o'clock. Fifty cents will be charged for each plate. The parents and patrons to donate food for the supper. Each donor is asked to call the chairman of the committee in charge of the supper, Mrs. E. H. Hunt.

EAST END NEWS

The Festival of Music given at Zion Baptist Church Sunday afternoon by Messrs. Homer Smith, Charles Smith and Coalton H. Becker, of Wilberforce was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Homer Smith possesses an unusual tenor voice with which he pleased his audience in each selection. Mr. Charles Smith, violinist was at his best. He possesses the quality of an artist. Mr. Coalton H. Becker, pianist rendered the most difficult classics with dexterity.

MAKES THE DEAF HEAR

Remarkable Invention Enables the Deaf to Hear All Sounds Clearly.

Every one who is troubled with deafness in any form will be interested in the announcement of the Dictograph Products Corporation, Suite 1322, No. 229 West 42nd Street, New York, that they have at last perfected a device which will enable every one whose auditory nerve is not entirely destroyed to hear as perfectly as one whose hearing is normal. To test it thoroughly they sent it to a number of people who had been deaf for years and they report most gratifying results. Many state that they hear the slightest sound with perfect ease and that their natural hearing has been greatly improved.

The manufacturers are so proud of their achievement and so confident that every deaf person will be amazed and delighted with it, that they offer to send it to any one by prepaid parcel post on ten days' free trial. They do not ship C. O. D., nor do they require any deposit, but send it entirely at their own risk and expense, allowing the user ten full days to try it and decide whether they want to keep it or not. As there is no obligation whatever, every one who is troubled with deafness in any form should take advantage of this liberal free trial offer. Just send them your name and address for descriptive literature and free trial request blank—Adv.

Mother Asks Governor for Trial of Ward.

Mrs. Mary O. Peters

Mrs. Mary O. Peters, mother of Clarence Peters, former United States sailor, who was shot to death in Westchester County, New York, by Walter S. Ward, son of a multi-millionaire New York baker, has appealed to Governor A. E. Smith, in Albany to force a trial of Ward. Ward surrendered to the police of White Plains and declared he killed Peters in a pistol duel that followed a blackmailing plot. The indictment against him was dismissed when the State refused to bring him to trial, admitting in sufficient evidence to convict.

CUTICURA HEALS PIMPLES ON FACE

Red, Large and Festered, Itched and Burned. Could Hardly Sleep.

"My trouble started with pimples that spread all over my face. They were red and large and festered. At night they itched and burned so that I scratched and irritated the affected parts. I could hardly sleep at night on account of the irritation. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Mary Pasanti, 714 Andes Ct., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are all you need for all toilet uses. Bathe with Soap, soothe with Ointment, dust with Talcum.

Sample Pack Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. E, Medina, N. H." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c, Ointment 25c and 50c, Talcum 25c. Cuticura Soap shaves without soap.

OLD EGYPTIAN MUMMY TO BE X-RAYED IF STILL IN TOMB SOON TO BE OPENED

London, January 17.—Pharaoh Tut-Ankh-Amen, the mightiest man in the world 3000 years ago, is to be X-rayed if his mummy still lies in the mystery chamber of his recently discovered tomb, which Lord Carnarvon will open when he returns to Egypt some time this month.

When the archaeologists force open the alabaster coffin and take off the thin covering of beaten gold from the body they will carry the shrouded form into the sunlight and photograph it from every angle, and for the first time in history a movie will be taken of that weird sight, the unwrapping of a mummy.

This film will show the mummy as it was deposited in a tomb, and will follow the long and difficult process from the unwrapping of the mummy cloth until the body of the king meets the light of day for the first time for thirty centuries.

"I am making no risks," said Lord Carnarvon, who has returned to London after his historic find.

"I do not know what we shall find in that third chamber, but as there is every indication that the mummy is still there I am taking every scientific precaution, so that no important fact may be lost to the world."

"It is necessary that X-ray photographs should be taken, because the radiographs of a royal mummy which has not been disturbed by tomb robbers will throw in portion light on the ancient ritual of embalming."

"If the mummy proves to be untouched it will enable archaeologists to learn for the first time how a royal mummy was wrapped for burial, and how the magical amulets put on it to preserve it from evil spirits in the underworld were distributed."

Unfortunately, according to Lord Carnarvon, further exploration is held up for want of funds, but other countries notably America, are coming forward with offers of help.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Everyone Interested in Christian Education Should Have This Book

This booklet has been written to acquaint our many friends with the important work that this Christian University is doing for the State, the Nation, the World, and especially to emphasize its fine traditions, its remarkable accomplishments, and the aims and ideals that it has followed for 80 years.

For four generations, Ohio Wesleyan has recognized and met the great responsibility that rests upon a University, in directing its students through the four critical and formative years of life:—she has carefully guarded the spiritual, physical and social welfare of 30,000 young men and women, while giving them the highest type of mental training.

"A Fountain of Good in the World", is a human interest book that tells an interesting story of this great work.

Your copy will be mailed upon request.

W.C.W. CO

MUST ALTER SYSTEM TO COMBAT DISEASE DECLARES PHYSICIAN

Dr. R. H. Grube, of this city, is author of an article entitled "The Contagium Vivum," which was published in the January issue of the Ohio State Medical Journal.

The article was read before the Section of Hygiene and Sanitary Science of the Ohio State Medical Association during the seventy-sixth annual meeting at Cincinnati last May and deals with contagious disease and epidemics.

Dr. Grube expresses the opinion that germ diseases are not likely to disappear from the world unless the present laws and customs for combating the contagious disease, which are inefficient, antiquated and unnecessarily burdensome, are revised to conform to truer ideas as to the biology of the causative factors of epidemics.

His article deals exhaustively with different phases of contagious disease and epidemics and under the sub-head, "spreading contagion," says in part: "I come now to the mouth-to-mouth theory, with its variations, which I think are amply sufficient to account for the spread of most contagious diseases. When we consider that the mouth is an ideal incubator for microbes, in that it has a proper and constant temperature, moisture and nutrition, we can see how these germs might lodge in the mouth and multiply there and be transmitted to others, although the person himself might be immune to infection by the disease in question. Transmission by direct contact as in kissing, the sequent use of drinking or eating utensils, or objects like pencils so common among school children, and the drops, not droplets, transferred at short range during coughing or sneezing, or the more recent theory of hand to mouth infection, which seems to be rapidly gaining credence among clinicians are sufficient to account for the most of the infections which are considering."

"The last mentioned method needs a little more elaboration. Almost involuntarily most persons cover the mouth and nose with hand while coughing or sneezing, especially when in the presence of others. Now the hand, especially the palmar surface, has an active though insensible perspiration. This prevents the quick drying of the drops of saliva and mucus and a part of these drops and their contained microbes is transferred to the next object grasped. This may be another hand, a door knob or a hand rail and the next similarly moist palm will pick it up, and transfer it to another mouth."

Dr. Grube is Greene County Health Commissioner and formerly health commissioner for the city of Xenia.

made a similar plea in his address at the meeting.

Efforts are being made on the part of Xenia Council to build up the lodge here, in line with similar efforts of other lodges. A class initiation will be held soon in Springfield, at which time the new members obtained here will be taken into the organization.

COX FIRES OPENING GUN IN 1924 DRIVE IN LANCASTER TALK

Makes Strong Bid For Leadership of His Party

Lancaster, O., Jan. 17.—Former Governor James M. Cox, speaking at the annual Jackson day dinner of Fairfield county Democrats here last night, reaffirmed his belief that the United States should enter the league of nations.

"We must enter into some international agreement, or remain in isolation," Mr. Cox said. "There is no middle ground. Since those who suggested other plans have abandoned them, common sense opens the only avenue of service—service not only for Europe, but ourselves as well."

The speaker's pronouncement came after a denunciation of the present administration's course both in foreign and domestic affairs, summed up in his statement that "the present public indictment is that general incompetence is enthroned at Washington."

Mr. Cox said: "If any Democrat believes that the verdict was registered against the league in 1920, and that it was regarded as conclusive, what about the tariff? We have been defeated in the past on that issue, but did we give up the fight? On the contrary, we continued to affirm it, while the Republicans stood for a protective tariff. Are we to accept the present tariff monstrosity as the expressed preference of the people, or will we renew the fight in 1924?"

Direct responsibility for the unsettled conditions in the near east was placed at the door of the United States department of state by Mr. Cox.

Judge Florence E. Allen of the state supreme court made a short address in which she said the great political parties ought to make the nonpartisanship of judges a plank in each of their platforms.

LAY PLANS FOR A MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Plans for a membership campaign were laid at a meeting and banquet of Xenia Council, No. 67, Jr. O. U. A. M., held at the hall here Wednesday night, and attended by about 50 lodge members.

State Councilor Keefer, of Springfield, was the speaker following the oyster banquet that was served the guests, and he made an appeal for new blood in the organization.

The state officer is an advocate of the plan to permit candidates between the ages of 16 and 18 years being taken into the lodge. Aaron Mills, also

FINE CORREGGIO LONG LOST FOUND IN NEW YORK CHURCH

New York, Jan. 16.—In the fifteenth century the world of art was thrown into consternation. One of the famous Correggio paintings in the series of four of "Nativity" had disappeared from its gallery in Europe. Whether the canvas had been stolen or lost or destroyed could not be definitely established, despite a thorough search by the best investigators. Their search was fruitless.

Thirty-five years ago Henry Hyams, Brooklyn art dealer, attended an auction sale at a Brooklyn warehouse. A group of dusty pictures was offered Hyams made a nominal bid. When no one volunteered a higher offer the pictures were "knocked down" to him.

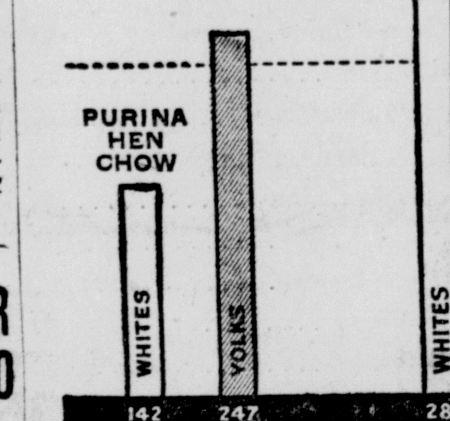

Hyams had long been an art collector. He cleaned the pictures he purchased, but one of them, because of its beauty and a something holy and sacred about it, excited his fancy. He worked on the canvas, and under his skillful handling the picture slowly turned out to be a real work of art. Slowly and laboriously Hyams brought out new lights, new colorings, new shadings on the canvas. And then he gasped. For the painting proved to be a Correggio. Hyams was astonished at his find. He refused to believe his own discovery and called in art experts. They came with microscopes, carefully examined the picture and then shared Hyams' awe and wonder. The picture was a Correggio.

Two other pictures of the group hang in the Parma and Dresden galleries and are valued at $100,000 each.

The third was destroyed by fire. And the fourth, which is considered the most valuable of the lot, came to light under such novel circumstances.

A year ago Hyams died. The picture was his chief treasure. His son, Henry Hyams, Jr., to whom it was willed, gave it to the Church of the Assumption, where it hangs today.

This chart shows how different feeds affect a hen's laying. Grains make many yolks but few whites. Purina Chicken Chowder and Purina Hen Chow make practically an equal number of whites and yolks when fed together as directed.

The first two columns show what happens when you feed Purina Hen Chow alone—too many yolks. The next two columns show what happens when you feed Purina Chicken Chowder only—too many whites.

The last two columns give you a picture of the egg production you get from Purina Chicken Chowder and Purina Hen Chow fed according to directions.
